INTRODUCTION.

"The Berkshire Chaffees" is a record of one line of the sixth generation of Chaffees descended from Thomas Chaffe, the immigrant ancestor. Comfort Chaffee, of Berkshire, Vt., was but one of nearly or quite one hundred and fifty male descendants in the sixth generation bearing the name of Chaffee (under its varied spellings) who married and raised families, nearly all of whom to-day have living descendants by the name of Chaffee. Perhaps no other of these numerous lines of Chaffees, however, has as many descendants bearing the name of Chaffee, for Comfort Chaffee was almost the oldest one of his generation, and he had eight sons, six of whom raised large families.

This volume is in no way a record of the Chaffee family in its broad sense, "The Chaffee Genealogy" having done that work, but it is a record of one branch that early in the nineteenth century settled near the Canadian border in northern New England, and became quite isolated from other Chaffees.

In August, 1885, the compiler of this work began collecting the family records of his maternal grandfather, Aaron Stowe Chaffee, and his eleven children, gradually extending the work to include the families of the married grandchildren. More than twenty years ago he contemplated publishing a small pamphlet, giving therein the family record of Aaron S. Chaffee and descendants down to and including great-grandchildren. At this time the compiler secured records of the birth, death and marriage of Comfort Chaffee and his wife, the birth records of their nine children, and an outline of five generations of Chaffee ancestors. From his mother, Polly H. (Chaffee) Elliot, the oldest child of Aaron S. Chaffee, he received a general idea of the names of her cousins, the grandchildren of Comfort Chaffee, and some account of many of these families.

Consideration of the matter finally led to the conviction that the scope of the pamphlet, if one was to be compiled and published, should be broadened to include all of the descendants of Comfort Chaffee, rather than just those of his youngest son, Aaron S. Chaffee, as all were of Berkshire, and the only Chaffees of Berkshire. The pamphlet, however, was never published, and for many years the idea lay dormant, except that minor additions were made to the records from time to time.

In October, 1908, the compiler passed a few days in Boston, and secured copious notes concerning the ancestors of Comfort Chaffee, in various lines, from the very large and excellent library of the New England Historic-Genealogical Society. In May, 1909, nearly two weeks were passed in West Berkshire, Vt., and during that time the tombstone inscriptions of Chaffees and Chaffee descendants buried in the cemeteries near West Berkshire and Berkshire Center were copied, and some other data secured. In July of the same year, the compiler was privileged to read and peruse a copy of "The Chaffee Genealogy," published in the preceding April. In this splendid work there are some lines of descent from Comfort Chaffee not carried out at all, the record of the tenth generation is quite meagre, and there is no record of the eleventh and twelfth generations. Coupled with this incompleteness was the fact that but two or three descendants of Comfort Chaffee bought the Genealogy.

There seemed to be a general demand for a low-priced family record of the Chaffees of Berkshire and their descendants, and this aroused the early desire of the compiler to collect the necessary material and publish such a work, including therein not merely those bearing the name of Chaffee, but the descendants in the many female lines. In the autumn of 1909, this desire had developed a determination to verify existing records, collect those necessary to make an unbroken record, and push the work to completion, although it was not until February, 1910, that the compilation was begun in real earnest.

So many of the descendants of Comfort Chaffee have furnished records for "The Berkshire Chaffees" that space will not permit of a mention by name, but the compiler wishes to thank all for the good help given, and without such assistance the work could not have been compiled. Interesting facts were brought out through conversation with the more aged among the descendants, especially Mrs. Lucy S. Chaffee, of Berkshire, Vt., and Mrs. Lovina F. Wheeler, of Fairfax, Vt. The wide acquaintance of Mr. John J. McCarty, of West Berkshire, Vt., with the Chaffees of Berkshire and their descendants, together with his retentive memory, very materially aided the compiler in getting into communication with the various families at the outset. Mr. A. B. Chaffee, of Montreal, Que., supplied records of the descendants of his father, Azro B. Chaffee, furnished old records and papers, and helped in other ways. Mr. S. R. Chaffee, of Providence, R. I., whose father was a second cousin of Comfort Chaffee, of Berkshire, aided in the work. Thanks are due to Miss Lottie L. Scott, of Burlington, Vt., for compiling the very complete index. Thanks are also due to the compiler's friend, Mr. D. P. Cary, of Somerville, Mass., for assistance in tracing the ancestry of Lucy Stow, the wife of Comfort Chaffee. Material aid was received from the library of the New England Historic-Genealogical Society, No. 18 Somerset St., Boston Mass., and from its officers and assistants.

The genealogical department of The Boston Transcript was of service, and thanks are due its editor and correspondents. The town clerks of Berkshire, Enosburg, Richford, Clarendon, Newport and Coventry, and the city clerks of Rutland and St. Albans, in Vermont, and several town and city clerks in other states, were very courteous and helpful. Postmasters and other officials rendered aid in locating families whose address could not be found otherwise. The adjutant generals of several states aided in the military records of Civil War soldiers.

Credit is due in large measure to the Chaffee Genealogy, and to its author, William H. Chaffee. Credit is also due to the Bliss Genealogy, the Carpenter Genealogy, the Mason Genealogy, the Rice Genealogy, the Danforth Genealogy, the Cummings Genealogy, the Towle Genealogy, and Savage's Genealogical Dictionary. From a manuscript by Dr. B. J. Kendall, of Geneva, Ill., the family records of the Kendall ancestors of Seth Kendall, Sr., were compiled. In a lesser degree, credit is due to other historical and genealogical works not listed.

The compiler has used great care to have the work as free from errors as possible, and to have the records authentic, but he does not hold himself responsible for any mistakes or omissions. There are so many chances for errors in copying and arranging the records, and in printing the same, that absolute accuracy is next to impossible. A difference in date or place or in the spelling of a name is often found between family records, town records, tombstone records, etc., and even between records furnished by individuals in the same family. In such cases the more probable record has been used. In several cases an error of one year has been discovered in the records furnished, and in a few cases an error of two or three years, or even ten years, was found and corrected. The compiler hopes that all omissions or mistakes noticed will be sent to him in a spirit of kindly forbearance.

ABBREVIATIONS AND EXPLANATIONS.

The following abbreviations have been used throughout the book, viz.: b. for born, bap. for baptized, d. for died, dau. for daughter, m. for married, prob. for probably,

Unm. for unmarried, and the usual abbreviations for the longer months of the year, the several states of the United States, the provinces of Canada, etc. A figure in parenthesis following "m." denotes first marriage, second marriage, etc. A surname in parenthesis, used with a woman's name, is the maiden name of that woman.

Each descendant of Comfort Chaffee, who settled in Berkshire, Vt., in 1802, has been given a number in this volume, these following consecutively through the book. The sign + precedes the numbers of all individuals whose complete record will be found in the succeeding generation. Absence of this sign indicates that nothing further is known of that individual than there appears. The names in parenthesis following the name of the individual at the head of each record are those of that person's ancestors of Chaffee descent, the superior numbers indicating to which generation each belongs.

Where two Chaffee descendants have intermarried, the full record will be found under that of the male descendant, the female descendant's line of Chaffee descent being there given. A brief paragraph will be given in its proper place for such females, with reference to the number under which the husband's record is given. There are two exceptions to this plan, each being where the husband is of the ninth generation and the wife of the tenth, when the record is continued under the wife's number as being of the younger generation, viz.: Gardner Armstrong, No. 118; and Royal Norman Kendall, No. 157.

In the world's history have been many calendars, and the year has begun at varying seasons. In England, from the 14th century till the change of style in 1752, the legal and ecclesiastical year began at March 25, though it was not uncommon in writing to reckon it from January 1. After the change was adopted in 1752, events which had occurred in January, February and before March 25, of the old legal year, would, according to the new arrangement, be reckoned in the next subsequent year. Thus the revolution of 1688 occurred in February of that legal year, or, as we would now say, in February, 1689; hence it is customary to write such dates thus, Feb. 22, 1688-9. As New England was settled largely by the English, the same custom prevailed here. A considerable number of events occurring between January 1 and March 25, of the years prior to 1752, are so recorded in this volume.

The index of names is sub-divided, Comfort Chaffee and his descendants being indexed first, and all other persons, except ministers of the gospel and justices of the peace, who performed marriage ceremonies, being indexed afterward. A separate index gives the family names of the mothers of those marrying Chaffee descendants and others, names that would not appear elsewhere in the index. In the index of places, the second name is that of the county in which the place is located. In the body of the book the county in which a place is situated is omitted in nearly all cases to avoid repetition, and to shorten the work. Berkshire and its hamlets of Berkshire Center, East Berkshire and West Berkshire are not indexed, as they occur so frequently. Enosburg and Enosburg Falls are indexed under Enosburg, other villages are listed apart from the town in which located.

The Berkshire, Vt., Chaffees.

FIVE GENERATIONS OF CHAFFEE ANCESTORS.

Credit is due "The Chaffee Genealogy," by William H. Chaffee, for nearly all of the material from which this chapter was written.

Thomas Chaffe, the immigrant ancestor of nearly all in America who to-day bear this surname under its varied forms of orthography, from Chafe to *Chaffee, came to New England, where in 1635 he owned land and was living in Hingham, Mass., a town near Boston. The place and date of his birth, his parentage, the time and place of his arrival, and the name of the ship which bore him from the Old World to the New, are at present unknown.

The first mention of him in the records is found in the Town Clerk's office in Hingham, under the date 1635:

"Given unto John Tucker by the town of Hingham for a planting lot six acres of land lying upon the Worlds End Hill, bounded with the land of Thomas Chaffe and the land of John Prince, Southward and with the land of Ralph Woodward, Northward, butting upon the Sea Eastward and Westward."

This is not only the earliest mention of Thomas Chaffe, but also of the name of Chaffe. How long Thomas Chaffe had owned this land when John Tucker received his land, we do not know. Hingham was one of the oldest towns in the Massachusetts Bay Colony. There were settlers there as early as 1633, at which time it bore the name of "Bare Cove." Under the heading "The severall parsell of land and meadow legally given unto Thomas Chaffe by the towne of Hingham," is recorded the gift of a "planting lott" of seven acres, a plot of salt marsh of two acres "be they more or less as they were measured," and for a "house lott" two acres of land "Butting upon Batchellor street eastward."

The recorded date of these grants is "July 17th 1637." The small amount of land granted to Thomas Chaffe for his house or home lot, proves that at this time he was unmarried, as it was the custom of those days to grant small parcels of land to bachelors, as being sufficient for their needs.

In October of the same year, 1637, Thomas Chaffe was given by the town of Hingham "for a greatt lott tenn acres of land lying upon the great playne," etc.

Nothing further is found in the records until April 9, 1642, when his name appears in the records of Nantasket, later called Hull, a town adjoining Hingham, and situated on the point of a peninsula jutting out into Massachusetts bay. Nantasket was an older town than Hingham, the first building there having been erected by the people of Plymouth on or before 1624, and used as a store house.

On the date just mentioned, April 9, 1642, "Thomas Chaffey" and others were admitted as planters, and were given lots of land. The name of the town was changed to Hull, May 29, 1644, and in July of that year a church was formed there.

In both Hingham and Hull Thomas Chaffe was a fisherman and farmer.

The name of his wife and the date and place of his marriage are unknown. He was probably married in Hull, as the copious notes and manuscripts left by the

* There are at least eleven forms as follows: Chafe, Chafy, Chafie, Chafey, Chafee, Chapbe, Chaffy, Chaffie, Chaffey, Chaffe, Chaffee.

Rev. Peter Hobart, pastor of the church at Hingham from September, 1635, until the date of his death in 1678, make no mention in any way of Thomas Chaffe, his wife or children. The town records of Hull prior to 1657 have been lost; if extant, they would doubtless give us the desired information. It is probable that the wife's Christian name was Dorothy, as her sons both had daughters by that name, which was not a name found in the families of their wives; in that day it was the custom to name children for their grandparents, the cases where this was not done being exceptional.

The last mention of Thomas Chaffe in Hull is "1657 The Lands and tenements of Thomas Chaffe." Between this date and May 30, 1660, Thomas Chaffe had moved from Hull and had probably settled in Rehoboth, then in Plymouth Colony, as we find by a deed from the said Thomas to Thomas Loring Senr., conveying all the property in Hull of the former. This deed calls "Thomas Chaffy" "some time of Hull" and calls Loring of "the Towne of Hull," and the deed is recorded in Boston. This does not say where Thomas Chaffe was then living, but in the Proprietors' Records of Rehoboth, Mass., we find that "Thomas Chafey" was one of the Proprietors at least as early as Dec. 25. 1660. The boundaries of land owned by Thomas Chaffe are also recorded at this time.

The town of Rehoboth was originally called by the Indians and after them by the English, "Seecunk" or "Seekonk." In July, 1621, some of the Pilgrims from the Plymouth settlement made a visit to the Indian Chief Massasoit, whose domain was known as the Sowams country, of which Wannamoisett, where Thomas Chaffe settled, formed a part. This was the first attempt made by the English to explore the interior, and the spirit of westward emigration, so early shown by them, has been dominant in their descendants ever since. As early as 1632, the Plymouth settlers had a trading post at Sowams.

About 1635, William Blackstone, a nonconformist minister of England, who had settled in Boston about 1625, left the home on Shawmut peninsula, Boston, which he had reclaimed from the wilderness, and came to Seekonk, five years after the arrival of Governor Winthrop and his colony in Boston. Blackstone is said to have made the following characteristic speech:

"I came from England because I did not like the Lord-Bishops, but I cannot join with you because I would not be under the Lord-Brethren."

He settled in what is now Cumberland, R. I., on the banks of the stream which bears his name, and about three miles above Pawtucket, R. I. Another early settler was Roger Williams, who being banished by the Court in Boston, left his home in Salem about the middle of January 1635-6, and settled for a few months in Seekonk, thinking himself to be outside the jurisdiction of both the Plymouth and Massachusetts Bay Colonies. Governor Winslow, of the Plymouth Colony, soon informed him that he had strayed into the edge of their bounds, and not wishing to displease the Bay (the Court at Boston) advised him to move to the other side of the river, which he did with five others, and upon landing called the place Providence. The purchase of the land on which Rehoboth stands was made of Massasoit in 1641 by John Brown and Edward Winslow, of the Plymouth Colony, authorized by the Court of that place to act for the early settlers, who were from Thomas Chaffe's old home, Hingham, and from Weymouth, Mass. The purchase was according to the measurements of those times, "a tract of land eight miles square," and embraced what is now the towns of Rehoboth, Seekonk and Pawtucket. A second purchase was made, Dec. 29, 1645, of the land called by the Indians and English alike "Wannamoisett," which forms a part of what is now Swansea, Mass., and Barrington, R. I., and was the place where Thomas Chaffe afterward settled. The third and last purchase was made after Thomas Chaffe had become an inhabitant and proprietor there, April 8, 1661, and was called "The North Purchase," including the present towns of Attleboro, Mass., and Cumberland, R. I.

Ancient Seekonk, later called Rehoboth, was afterwards subdivided as follows: In 1668 the southeast part of it was set off and called Swansea, which in turn lost a portion of its land in 1717, when the town of Barrington, Mass., was formed, and in 1790 another part, when Somerset was formed as a town. In 1747 Barrington, a part of Swansea, now Warren, and Bristol were set off from Massachusetts to Rhode Island. Barrington was united with the territory taken from Swansea and called Warren, and the two towns formed Bristol county, R. I., with Bristol the shire town. In 1770, Barrington, R. I., was set off from Warren, with boundary line substantially as at the present time. In 1694, Rehoboth North Purchase was formed into the town of Attleboro, and this, in turn, in 1746, lost what was then known as the "Gore," the town of Cumberland, R. I., being formed. Ancient Rehoboth now remained intact until 1812, when its western part became a separate town, taking the old Indian name of Seekonk. In 1828, the northwest corner of Seekonk was formed into the town of Pawtucket, Mass., and in 1861 the western portion became East Providence; at the same time, the newly formed town and Pawtucket were ceded to the state of Rhode Island, in exchange for Fall River, R. I., which was annexed to Fall River, Mass.

The settlers from Hingham and Weymouth located in Seekonk in 1643, the latter including in their number the Rev. Samuel Newman, and in 1645 the name was changed at his request to Rehoboth, a scripture name; this first minister of Rehoboth having compiled the third Bible Concordance, which far surpassed the other two. Three editions of it were published, the second having been revised from the first, while the author was living in Rehoboth, where he died July 5, 1663. His church was about five miles north of Thomas Chaffe's house, and our worthy ancestor doubtless profited by his sermons and sorrowed with his neighbors over this able pastor's death.

The first recorded purchase of Rehoboth land by Thomas Chaffe was from Stephen Paine, Sr., on Feb. 9, 1660.

When, in 1668, Swansea was set off from Rehoboth, Thomas Chaffe's home in Wannamoisett became part of the new town, and he a citizen of it, though it is probable that he also owned land which remained within the boundaries of the old town, as in a deed dated 1675 he calls himself "of Rehoboth." Thomas Chaffe bought and sold considerable land in the territory included in Ancient Seekonk and a full account of these several deeds, as well as other documents referring to him, can be found in "The Chaffee Genealogy," by William H. Chaffee.

During King Philip's War, Thomas Chaffe and his family, as well as near neighbors, doubtless lived in "Chaffe's Garrison," a stone building which stood near his house. During this time he bought of Francis Stevens, of Rehoboth, his house, orchard and house lot, containing about six acres of land and lying in Rehoboth; what disposal he made of this property is not known, as no deed of sale is on record and no mention of this property is made in his will. This deed was acknowledged Sept. 20, 1675, but was made on the 15th day of the same month.

The last mention in the records of Thomas Chaffe during his life occurs in the report of a town meeting March 16, 1679-80.

Thomas Chaffe's will was made July 25, 1680, and was exhibited "Sixt of March Anno Domini 1683. [1682-3]." He divides his property between his sons Nathaniel and Joseph. The inventory was taken May 15, 1683, and the value of the personal property is given at 14*l*, 19*s*, 6*d*, a little less than $75 of money by our reckoning. Four parcels of land are listed, aggregating 110 acres.

Just what the date of Thomas Chaffe's death was we do not know, but probably not long before the filing of his will. He was doubtless buried in the ancient Chaffe Burying Ground on his own farm, though no stone to his memory remains. From information gathered and handed down by the older people, we learn that the house stood but a few rods from the burial ground. This property located on the west bank of what is now the Barrington river, though in Thomas Chaffe's time it was called the Sowams river, is about two miles northwest of the present town of Barrington Center, R. I., and is owned by Mr. L. R. Peck.

Children of Thomas Chaffe, probably born in Nantasket, Mass., (now called Hull:)

ii Joseph Chaffe, probably born between 1639 and 1646; married Annis Martin.

Nathaniel ² Chaffe, (Thomas ¹) was probably born in Nantasket, Mass., (later called Hull) between 1638 and 1642, and died in Rehoboth, Mass., in September, 1721. He married Aug. 19, 1669, in Swansea, Mass., Experience Bliss, daughter of Jonathan and Miriam (Harmon) Bliss, of Rehoboth. She was probably born Feb. 5, 1649, in Rehoboth, and she also died in September, 1721. A tradition from Rehoboth tells us that so devoted was Nathaniel to his wife that he died of grief a few hours after her death. In a succeeding chapter in the latter part of this book will be found a brief account of the Bliss family.

Nathaniel Chaffe doubtless moved from Hull to Rehoboth with his parents and brother, Joseph, between 1657 and 1660. In 1667 the part of Rehoboth where he lived, known as Wannamoisett, was set off as a separate town and called Swansea.

Nathaniel Chaffe was evidently a valued citizen, for in 1674-5 he was invited by the town of Rehoboth, in which he had formerly lived, to return and again become an inhabitant, land being offered him as an inducement. He sold land in Swansea and removed to Rehoboth. Nathaniel Chaffe was a blacksmith, and one who could shoe horses and work in iron and other metals was a man to welcome in those early days.

King Philip's War began June 24, 1675, and lasted until the end of August, 1676. What must have been the anxiety of Nathaniel Chaffe during this time of horror! At the outbreak of this war he had a wife and three small children, and during its progress his second son, Nathaniel, Jr., was born. Some time during the war he contributed 3*℥*, 16*s*, 6*d* to the war fund. Bliss' History of Rehoboth says of King Philip's War:

"Of the miseries of this war, Rehoboth, from its proximity to Mount Hope, the residence of Philip or Pometacom, the prime mover of the war, was destined to suffer its full share. The first blood was spilled within the original jurisdiction of Rehoboth; and the last of Philip's generals, the stern and interpid old warrior and councillor, Annawon, was captured within the present limits of the same town. During this war, which lasted nearly two years, the inhabitants of Rehoboth were kept in almost constant alarm; a number of them were, at different times slain; and the whole town, the garrison-houses excepted, was at one time laid in ashes. The events of this war, so far as connected with Rehoboth . . . occupy a prominent place in the hardships, dangers and sufferings of the early settlers of this town."

Nathaniel Chaffe served two terms as constable, was also a grand juryman, "tytheing man," etc. Nathaniel Chaffe bought and sold a goodly number of parcels of land, a full account of which is found in "The Chaffee Genealogy." His last deed was to his son, Noah, "for and in Consideration of Love, good Will & Affection which I have and do bear towards my youngest son Noah Chaffe of ye Town aforesaid who is yet with me and is to Dwell with me and to take Care of Me and my wife and to provide for each all." This was May 3, 1715. With this son Nathaniel and Experience spent their last days, doubtless receiving loving care from Noah and his wife. They died in a little more than six years after this deed was given.

No will, inventory, distribution or other papers relating to Nathaniel Chaffe's estate are to be found. The old burying ground surrounding the Congregational church, formerly in Rehoboth, later in Seekonk, Mass., and now in the village of Rumford, East Providence, R. I., is supposed to be the burial place of Nathaniel and Experience, though no stones to their memory remain.

Children, the first three born in Swansea, the others in Rehoboth:

- i Dorothy^s Chaffe, married Nathaniel Paine.
- ii Thomas Chaffe, b. Oct. 19, 1672; m. Margaret Carpenter.
- iii Rachel Chaffe, b. Sept. 7, 1673; d. Feb. 28, 1703, Rehoboth.
- iv Nathaniel Chaffe, Jr., b. Jan. 4, 1675-6; m. Mercy _____.
- + v Jonathan Chaffe, b. April 7, 1678; m. Hannah Carpenter.
- vi David Chaffe, b. Aug. 22, 1680; m. (1) Patience Atherton; (2) Mrs. Hannah Pidge.
- vii Experience Chaffe, b. March 24, 1682-3; m. Timothy Carpenter.
- viii Mehitable Chaffe, b. June 10, 1685; d. Aug. 6, 1699, Rehoboth.

- xi Noah Chaffe, b. Dec. 17, 1692; m. (1) Sarah Carpenter; (2) Hepsibah Daggett.

Jonathan^s Chaffe, (Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) was born in Rehoboth, Mass., April 7, 1678, and died there Dec. 31, 1766. He married Nov. 23, 1703, in Rehoboth, Hannah Carpenter, daughter of William and Miriam (Searles) Carpenter. In a succeeding chapter in the latter part of this book will be found a brief account of the Carpenter family. Hannah Carpenter was born April 10, 1684 (1685), and in 1767 was appointed executrix of her husband's estate.

Jonathan Chaffe was several times chosen a grand juryman, also elected selectman, field driver, tything man, etc. Nov. 21, 1715, he and one hundred and ten others agreed to pay for the building of a new meeting-house in the following installments, "One hundred pounds this year 1715, & 100^l in the year 1716, and what more shall be needful for the finishing of the Meeting House in 1717." Jan. 15, 1727, the town meeting "chose Jonathan Chaffee to project & prepair a method how schools shall be kept in the severall parts of the town, and how many may be proper for the Towne to have."

At various times Jonathan Chaffe owned several parcels of land in Rehoboth. In 1718 and 1719 he bought 200 acres of land in Ashford, Conn., and in 1726 he gave 100 acres of this land to his eldest son, Jonathan, who settled there. In 1734 he sold the remainder of his Ashford property to his brother, David, apparently having never lived in that town.

Jonathan Chaffe was one of the administrators of his brother Noah's estate, and was the guardian of Noah's two orphan sons. On May 21, 1744, "the town meeting being met Chose Jonathan Chaffee to be oversear of the workhouse this present year. He being present and accepted the said trust and did then declare to the Town that he would not charge the Town for his Trouble and Labor in that affair, and would be content with a Reasonable allowance out of the earnings of the persons committed to the said house."

In deeds of land bought and sold, Jonathan Chaffe is variously designated as "Yeoman," "husbandman," and "Mason." In the old buying ground, formerly in Rehoboth, but now in the village of Rumford, in East Providence, R. I., we read on a moss-encrusted stone this inscription:

"Jonathan Chaffe
Departed this life
December 31, 1766
in the 89th year of his age."

Children, born in Rehoboth:

- i Jonathan ⁴ Chaffe, Jr., b. June 25, 1704; m. Abigail Lyon.
- + ii Nathaniel Chaffe, b. Oct. 20, 1705; m. (1) Rebecca Mason; (2) Lydia Peck.

Nathaniel ⁴ Chaffee, (Jonathan, ³ Nathaniel, ² Thomas ¹) born Oct. 20, 1705, Rehoboth, Mass.; died June 12, 1759, Rehoboth; married, (1) Dec. 12, 1734, in Rehoboth, Rebecca Mason, daughter of Samuel and Rebeckah (Read) Mason, born April 27, 1710, Rehoboth, died April 22, 1745 (or 1746), Rehoboth; (2) Feb. 25, 1747, in Rehoboth, Lydia Peck, who survived him, and married (2) Jan. 13, 1763, Thomas Wilmarth, of Rehoboth.

In a succeeding chapter in the latter part of this book will be found a brief account of the Mason family.

Nathaniel Chaffee was a mason. He was also a land owner in Rehoboth. His widow, Lydia, surrendered her right of administration of his estate to his son, Nathaniel, Jr., June 18, 1759, and June 25, 1759, the real and personal estate was divided among the heirs, the widow and sons, Nathaniel, John, Levi and Noah. The eldest son, Nathaniel, was appointed guardian of his brothers, Levi and Noah.

- + i Nathaniel ⁵ Chaffe, Jr., b. Oct. 6, 1735; m. (1) Ruth Mansfield; (2) Susanna Carpenter.
- ii John Chaffe, b. June 20, 1737; m. Ruth Jones.

Nathaniel ⁵ Chaffee, Jr., (Nathaniel, ⁴ Jonathan, ³ Nathaniel, ² Thomas ¹) born Oct. 6, 1735, Rehoboth, Mass.; died in 1822; married (1) Oct. 15, 1755, in Rehoboth, Ruth Mansfield, daughter of Benjamin and Dorothy (Carpenter) Mansfield, born June 4, 1732, Rehoboth, died Jan. 3, 1760, Rehoboth; (2) July 17, 1760, Susanna Carpenter, daughter of Daniel Carpenter, born June 29, 1736, Rehoboth, died before Dec. 22, 1818, as she is not mentioned in her husband's will made on that date. See chapter in the latter part of this book for the ancestry of Dorothy (Carpenter) Mansfield.

Nathaniel Chaffee, Jr., was a blacksmith, and lived the greater part of his life in Rehoboth, although when he made his will in 1818 he called himself of Seekonk, but as the records do not show that he sold his land in Rehoboth, and all the property mentioned in his will was in Seekonk, the probability is that his Rehoboth property was in the western part of the town, which in 1812 was set off as a separate town and called Seekonk. In 1759 Nathaniel Chaffee, Jr., was appointed administrator of his father's estate. He bought land in Rehoboth on Nov. 9, 1761, and March 31, 1784. His will is recorded in Taunton, Mass., and mentions his sons Comfort, Nathaniel, Benjamin, Simeon, Ezra and Aaron, and daughters Rebecca Peck and Hannah Chaffee. The son, Aaron Chaffee, was made executor of the will.

Nathaniel Chaffee served in the War of the Revolution, enlisting immediately on receipt of the news of the Battle of Lexington. His record is given as follows in "Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution:"

"Chffee, Nathaniel, Rehoboth. Private, Capt. John Lyon's or Capt. Jessie Perrin's co., which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775; service 7 days (the two Rehoboth alarm companies under Capt. Lyon and Capt. Perrin returned upon one roll).

"Chaffee, Nathaniel. Private, Capt. Nathaniel Carpenter's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt. marched from Rehoboth to Bristol, R. I., on the alarm of Dec. 8, 1776; service 16 days.

"Choffe, Nathaniel, Rehoboth, Private, Capt. Jacob Fuller's co., Col. John Jacob's regt.; enlisted May 27, 1778; service, 7 mos 6 days at Rhode Island; enlistment to expire Jan. 1, 1779.

"Chaffey, Nathaniel. Private, Capt. Jacob Haskin's co., Lieut. Col. Samuel Pierce's regt.; enlisted May 20, 1779; discharged July 1, 1779; service, 1 mo. 14 days, at Tiverton, R. I."

- iii Ruth Chaffee, b. Dec. 10, 1758; probably died before 1818, as she is not mentioned in her father's will.

Children, by second wife, born in Rehoboth:

- iv Susanna Chaffee, b. March 1, 1763; probably died before 1818, as she is not mentioned in her father's will.
- v Hannah Chaffee, b. Dec. 1, 1764; died before 1824; unmarried; lived in Seekonk, where she owned land in 1815.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME OF CHAFFEE.

In answer to many inquiries, the following regarding the "Derivation of the Surname," under the title of "The Name of Chaffee in England," is given verbatim from "The Chaffee Genealogy," Appendix, page 585:

"From the Etymological Dictionary of Family and Christian Names by William Arthur, M. A., published New York, 1857. Chaffee (Fr.) Chafe, to heat to grow warm or angry, (Fr.) Chauffer, to warm, to cannonade, attack briskly.

"The following is given in a book called The Norman People, which was published by Henry S. King & Co., of London, England, in 1874:

"From page 184, 'Cafe, or Chaff, from chauve, bald (Lower). Henry, Nicholas, Robert, Ranulph le Chauve, or Calvus, 1180-95, in Normandy (Mag. Rot. Scac). These names frequently occur in England, 13th century and later.'

"From page 193, 'Chaffey or Chaffy, a form of Chafe or Chaff.'

"Combe, O. Fr.—That unwatered portion of a valley which forms its continuation beyond and above the most elevated spring that issues into it.

"A deep valley where the sides come together in a concave form."

Then follows an account of Chaffcombe or Chafecombe in Somerset county, England, taken from a History of Somerset, by Rev. John Collinson, published in 1791. In the Conqueror's time this little parish belonged to the Bishop of Coutances, and the ancient name was Caffecome, which is compounded of the Saxon lay, sharp, and lomb, valley.

Another account in "The Chaffee Genealogy" of the derivation of the surname is taken from an article in Devonshire Wills by the Rev. W. K. W. Chafy, D. D., England, which says:

"The Chafys derive their name from their ancient heritage, 'Chafecombe,' now Chaffcombe, near Chard, which is the 'ceaf cumbe' (in English, the light or breezy valley) of the Saxon period, and which was held by their ancestor, Hugo the Thegn, or Thane, in the days of Ethelred 'the Unready,' and by his son, Raynald Fitz-Hugh, in those of Edward 'the Confessor.'

"But although the Chafys can thus trace back with unerring certainty to a period long anterior to the conquest, and so justify the assertion inscribed on the ancient tomb of one of them in Devonshire, as to his own identity with the 'perantiqua' race of the Chafes of Chafecombe, yet they are not, paternally at least, of Saxon origin, which at once accounts for their continued possession of Chafecombe under Norman rule, for though their representative then nominally became sub-tenant under the Bishop of Coutance, he practically remained the owner of the land of his ancestors under the newly-devised feudal system. This was 'Ralph Fitz-Reginald,' the grandson of Hugo or Hugh, whose own names and those of his immediate posterity and their adoption of the Norman 'Fitz' as expressive of their parentage, sufficiently prove that the long prevalent idea as to the 'Saxon origin of the Chafecombe family' is as erroneous as the position of its earliest ascertained members in Saxon England is unique and interesting.

"Hugo, who is said by many of his English detractors to have been of 'mean origin, and the son of a French churl', was the confidential adviser of Emma of Normandy, second wife of King Ethelred, and came to England in her train in the year 1002."

This article, which is several pages in length, goes on to show that Robert Fitz-Ralph, a grandson of Hugo, was described as "Lord of Chafecombe," and as holding lands in the Reign of Henry I. From him descended the Chafes of England, and the descent is brought nearly to the close of the last century.

A list is given of many English wills, records of marriages, baptisms, burials, tombstone records, christenings, etc., of persons bearing the name of Chaffy, under its varied spellings, the dates varying from 1552 to 1698. The Christian name of Thomas appears about twenty times, but there is no proof that any of these Chaffys were relatives of Thomas Chaffe of Hingham, Hull and Rehoboth, Mass.

"The Chaffee Genealogy" gives a picture of the old church at Chaffcombe.

The nearest approach to our surname in Scotland is Mac Haffie or Haffie.

William Chaffy appears among the "49" officers in Ireland in 1649 in the time of Charles I.

In 1886 the surname did not appear in any of the city directories of Ireland.

The surname has not been found at all in Wales.

The surname has not been found in the directories of the principal cities of France, but the surname Chouffet, pronounced Shufa, occurs there.

The descendants of Thomas Chaffe, of Hingham, Mass., find no coat of arms connected with his surname.

There are coats of arms of the surname used in England, but neither these nor the one used by the Rev. W. K. W. Chafy have been proven to be connected in any way with the surname in the United States.

The more common pronunciation of the name "Chaffee" is with the "a" short as in the word chaff, but in Berkshire, Vt., the name is pronounced with the long sound of "a" as in chafe. The latter pronunciation is general among the descendants of the Chaffees of Berkshire wherever found in United States or Canada, although there are some exceptions.

COMFORT CHAFFEE—SIXTH GENERATION.

1 Comfort ⁶ Chaffee, (Nathaniel,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas ¹) was born March 9, 1756, Rehoboth, Mass.; died Feb. 23, 1828, Berkshire, Vt.; married Sept. 25, 1781, in Grafton, Mass., to Mrs. Lucy (Stow) Hoyt, daughter of David and Lucy (Goodnow) Stow, and widow of Reuben Hoyt. She was born April 30, 1758, Grafton, Mass., died March 23, 1845, Berkshire. An account of the ancestry of Lucy Stow is given in a chapter in the latter part of this book.

In connection with the marriage of Lucy Stow to Reuben Hoyt, the writer is in possession of a document, of which the following is the text, the same having probably been used in procuring a pension for Lucy (Stow) Chaffee in her old age:

"A memorandum of Dates First I was maryed to Reuben Hoyt June 20th 1779 in the third year of his service in the Continental Army for the town of New-brantriy County of Worcester in Massachusetts when I was maryed he expected to return to the Army but was violently seased with rushing blood and it brought on the Consumpsion and was ever after wile he lived was under the Doctors Care he Died February the 4 1781 he the Said Hoyt never after I was acquainted with him never received any pay from the Army of his pay for his servisses whilst A Souldier

On the reverse side is this notation:

"In a case where the claimant has married after the decease of the husband for whose services she may claim the Pension, it cannot under the explanatory act of March 3d 1837, be withheld on account of her last marriage provided she was a widow on the 4th of July 1836."

The filing reads, "Asa Hoyt Hampshire county, Massachusetts."

It may be said that the "Newbrantriy" doubtless means the town of New Braintree, Mass.

Mrs. S. J. Scott, 52 Monroe St., Burlington, Vt., is the possessor of an old Bible which has been handed down from her great-grandmother, Lucy (Stow) Chaffee. On the blank side of the leaf giving the title to the New Testament is the following inscription, a photograph of which is reproduced in this volume:

"Lucy Stow Her
Bible and was born in the year 1758 april
the 30th
And Was given to her by the honoured
grandmother hannah
Stow in the year
1776
December the 14"

The paper of this title page is so old that it has broken away on the edges, as can be seen by the photograph, it has been torn and sewed together, and the paper is badly discolored, especially on the edges. The first pages of the Bible are gone, also the last, and some other pages. Whether there were more records on the front pages of the Bible is not known. Following the New Testament are the Psalms in Metre, and between the two parts is a blank page on which is written,

" Comfort Chaffee and Lucy His wife were Married September ye 25th 1781.

" Comfort Chaffee Born March the 9th A. D. 1756.

" Nathaniel Born Febry 22d 1783.

" Jasper Chaffee Born Oct 4th 1789."

The imprint on this old Bible reads,

Comfort Chaffee's boyhood and early manhood days were without doubt passed in the town of his birth, Rehoboth, Mass., but we have no record of him until he enlisted in the Revolutionary War, his military record, taken from the "Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution," being given as follows:

" Chaffee, Comfort. Capt. John Pain's co.; list of men stationed at Winter Hill and Dorchester for about two months; dismissed April 1, 1776; also, Capt. Carpenter's co., Col. Simeon Cary's regt., Gen. John Fellows's brigade; list of men stationed at New York and White Plains for 5 months; dismissed Dec. 1, 1776; also, Capt. Hill's co., Col. John Dagget's regt.; list of men stationed at Bristol for 3 months from Dec. 28, 1776.

" Chaffee, Comfort. Private, Capt. Nathaniel Carpenter's co., Col. John Hathaway's regt.; service from April 21, 1777, 23 days at Tiverton, R. I.; also, Capt. Nathaniel Carpenter's co., Col. Josiah Whitney's regt.; service between May 13, 1777, and July 5, 1777, 7 days; roll includes travel on march from Point Judith in South Kingston, R. I., to Rehoboth.

" Chaffee, Comfort. Private, Lieut. Samuel Brown's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt.; marched from Rehoboth to Tiverton, R. I., on the alarm of Aug. 1, 1780; discharged Aug. 8, 1780; service, 9 days, under Gen. Heath."

In speaking of the military record of Comfort Chaffee, "The Chaffee Genealogy" says:

" At one time he is said to have been attached to George Washington's staff, attending to the transportation of his tent and baggage. He received from the state of Massachusetts two hundred acres of land in Maine (then a part of Massachusetts), as a bounty. In 1818, when a resident of Berkshire, Vt., he applied for a pension."

A granddaughter of Comfort Chaffee, Mrs. Lucy S. Chaffee (No. 52) has told the writer that it has been told her that Comfort Chaffee courted Lucy Stow and they became engaged to be married when Lucy broke the engagement, jilting him to marry Reuben Hoyt. After the death of Reuben Hoyt, Comfort Chaffee renewed his suit for the hand of the fair young widow, and she was so much impressed with his attentions that she told him that if he could overlook her treatment in jilting him to marry another she would become his bride, "and they lived happily ever afterward." One thing is certain, Comfort Chaffee and Lucy Stow were married on the 25th of September in the year in which Reuben Hoyt died on the 4th of February.

The first record of Comfort Chaffee after his marriage on Sept. 25, 1781, is a deed recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the Middle District of Berkshire, at Pittsfield, Mass. This deed is from Abner Allen, "yeoman," of Rehoboth, Bristol county, Mass., to Comfort Chaffee, "husbandman," also of Rehoboth. The consideration of the deed is 35 £ 3s. (about $175), and the deed conveys a certain tract of land situate in the township of lands granted to William Bullock, Esq., then in the county of Berkshire, containing one hundred acres, and is lot No. 172, being the second lot drawn on the original right of Noah Sabin, and is near the southeastern corner of said township. This must have been in or near the present town of Adams, Mass. The date of the deed is Dec. 31, 1782.

It is probable that Comfort Chaffee moved to this place, either before or after buying the land, as when he sold a part of this lot of land by a deed dated Aug. 27, 1783, he is described as being of "New Seconke" Berkshire county, Mass. "New Seconke" was then a small hamlet, and there is no record of such a name now. It was located in "Bullard's Grant" which contained a large number of acres, parts of which were located in several towns.

It is quite probable that the eldest son of Comfort and Lucy Chaffee, Nathaniel Chaffee, was born here Feb. 22, 1783, though no record of his birth is to be found at Adams, North Adams, or Pittsfield, Mass., but this is explained by the fact that the early records of those towns are very incomplete except in the case of certain families.

The deed of Aug. 27, 1783, just mentioned, was from Comfort Chaffee, "yeoman," of New Seconke, to William Ingraham, "gentleman," of Adams, Mass., and the consideration named was 10£ ($50) and the deed does not give the number of acres, but describes the land as "taking off" the lot No. 172, it being only a part of the lot. What disposition Comfort Chaffee made of the remainder of the lot of land was not found out in the search of records made. He probably did not sell it until some years later, or it may be that the deed was never recorded.

A few weeks after the deed from Comfort Chaffee and Lucy Chaffee to William Ingraham, we find that he received a deed from "Squire Ide of Clarendon, Vt.," to "Comfort Chaffe of Adams, county of Berkshire, Mass." This was of fifty-two acres of land in the town of Clarendon, Rutland county, Vt., and was for 64£ (about $320). The date of the deed is Oct. 1, 1783. This parcel of land was doubtless in the western part of the town.

Three and one-half years later, or on March 14, 1787, Comfort Chaffee deeded this same parcel of land to Samuel Priest, of Clarendon, for 70£ ($350).

During this three and one-half years, two children were born to Comfort and Lucy Chaffee, viz.: Reuben, born Jan. 23, 1785, and Lucy, born Jan. 3, 1787. The record of Lucy's birth is on the Clarendon records, and Reuben was probably born there, although his birth is not recorded, but this is not strange, as there was no compulsory registration of births, deaths and marriages in that time.

Comfort Chaffee doubtless moved to Rutland after selling his Clarendon real estate, as when he again bought land in Clarendon, on Aug. 17, 1790, he is called "Comfort Chaffee of Rutland." But as he was living in Clarendon when the first census was taken in the summer of 1790, according to a work lately published by the government entitled "Heads of Families: First Census of the United States: 1790," he may have moved back there prior to buying his next place.

Another proof that Comfort Chaffee lived for a time in Rutland is the fact that a third son, Jasper Chaffee, was born in Rutland, Oct. 4, 1789, according to family records left by the youngest son of Jasper Chaffee, Azro Buck Chaffee, (No. 38) and now in possession of A. B. Chaffee, Jr., of Montreal, (No. 204); and also by the record on the monument to Jasper Chaffee in the cemetery at West Berkshire, Vt.

The second purchase of Clarendon land by Comfort Chaffee was a parcel of seventy-six acres bought of William Green, of Clarendon, and the consideration was 22£ ($110). This land was in the north part of the town and not far from Rutland.

During the ten years and a little more that Comfort Chaffee owned this latter place in Clarendon, four children were born to him, viz.: Comfort, Jr., born Feb. 8, 1792; Warren, born April 24, 1794; John, born July 12, 1796, and Elijah, Nov. 5, 1799. The births of the first three of these are recorded in Clarendon, and there seems little doubt that Elijah was also born in Clarendon. There is no record of Comfort Chaffee buying or selling land in Rutland, and no record of any children being born to him there, but the proof is conclusive that Jasper was born there.

On Dec. 3, 1793, Comfort Chaffee bought of Philip Green, who seems to have been his neighbor, one-half acre of land for 2£ 14s. This without doubt adjoined his other land.

On Jan. 28, 1801, Comfort Chaffee, of Clarendon, sold to Braddock Chaffee, of Rehoboth, Mass., for $1,200 "My home farm containing by estimation 76 1-2 acres." This is the same land mentioned in the former deeds to Comfort Chaffee. The difference in price indicates that a considerable improvement had been made in ten years.

There is no further record of Comfort Chaffee in Clarendon. The writer has never heard any reason given why Comfort Chaffee should choose Berkshire, Vt., for a dwelling-place after he sold his Clarendon property and decided to move away. At this time all of the children of Comfort Chaffee were born except the youngest, Aaron Stowe Chaffee, who was born Aug. 18, 1802, a few months after the removal to Berkshire.

The children of Comfort Chaffee at the time of leaving Clarendon were from two to nineteen years of age, the older sons being grown to manhood, and it is quite possible that the prospect of buying a large area of land for a small amount of money, thus providing a farm for each of his sons as they become old enough to go by themselves, may have been the immediate cause of this removal which was in those days quite a distance to remove.

Turning to the records of Berkshire, Vt., we find that "Comfort Chaffee of Clarendon" bought of "Thomas Byrd of Vergennes" lot No. 6 in the first division of Berkshire, "drawn to the right of Daniel Jones" for $333.33. This purchase was on June 26, 1801, and this lot, No. 6, became the home farm of Comfort Chaffee; and a portion of this lot was also a part of the farm which Comfort Chaffee sold to his son, John Chaffee, and which in turn was the home farm of John's son, Homer S. Chaffee, by whom it is still owned.

On July 24, 1801, "Comfort Chaffee of Clarendon" bought of "Ebenezer Marvin of Huntsburg" (now Franklin, Vt.) lot No. 4 in the first division of Berkshire, "drawn to the right of Israel Dibble," for $250, and lot No. 62 in the first division, "drawn to the right of William Walker," for $200. Lot No. 4, which adjoins the Canadian boundary line, was sold by Comfort Chaffee to "Philip Green of Clarendon," on June 20, 1803, for $400. This Philip Green was the father of Jonas Green who married Sally Chaffee, a daughter of Braddock Chaffee, who bought Comfort Chaffee's home farm in Clarendon. Jonas Green and wife lived on this Berkshire farm for many years. It is now owned and occupied by Joseph Demar.

Lot No. 62 was sold by Comfort Chaffee to "William Danforth of Hartland," on Nov. 20, 1806, for $300. The purchase price was not exactly all the recompense which Comfort Chaffee received for this land, as he thereby obtained two excellent daughters-in-law, his second son, Reuben Chaffee, marrying Sally Danforth, oldest child of William Danforth, on Sept. 27, 1807, while Comfort Chaffee, Jr., another son, married Priscilla Danforth, a younger daughter of William, on Oct. 27, 1811, and after the death of Comfort, Jr., John Chaffee, a still younger son of Comfort, married this widow Chaffee on Dec. 4, 1817.

The foregoing lots of land were bought by Comfort Chaffee in the year preceding his removal to Berkshire, which is given as March, 1802. This is probably the correct date, as on March 26, 1802, "Comfort Chaffee of Berkshire" bought of "Daniel Owen of Berkshire," for $30, "8 acres and 112 rods" of land, being the land on the west side of the road of lot No. 11 of the first division, "drawn to the right of Caleb Culver," and on Dec. 1, 1802, Comfort Chaffee bought of the same man all of the same lot No. 11 "except nine acres on the west side of the road" for $470. On April 13, 1804, Comfort Chaffee sold to his oldest son, Nathaniel Chaffee, fifty acres on the eastern portion of this lot for $100. On Sept. 8, 1809, Comfort Chaffee sold to Moses Walton, for $300, forty acres of land on the western portion of this same lot No. 11, taking a mortgage deed on the same day. Moses Walton, however, deeded this forty acres of land back to Comfort Chaffee on December 9 of the same year for the same sum of $300, and the mortgage was discharged the following day. On Feb. 9, 1813, Comfort Chaffee deeded to his son, Comfort Chaffee, Jr., for $200, the western part of this lot No. 11. Comfort, Jr., died soon after, and in the settlement of his estate a portion of this land fell to his father, Comfort Chaffee. This parcel of land Comfort quit-claimed to his son, John Chaffee, on Nov. 5, 1822, for $10, John having in the meantime married the widow of Comfort, Jr., as before mentioned. Lot No. 11 lies directly south of and adjoins lot No. 6.

It appears that Chauncey Moore, collector for the town of Berkshire, held a tax sale, Dec. 24, 1804, and among the parcels of land sold for unpaid taxes were lots No. 3, of the first division "drawn to the right of George Goodwin," and lot No. 6. These two lots were bought by Comfort Chaffee who already owned lot No. 6, for $6.98. It would seem that this sale did not give a clear title to lot No. 3, as on Aug. 18, 1807, Comfort Chaffee bought of "Ebenezer Marvin of Huntsburg," for $300, this same lot No. 3, which is bounded on the north by Canada, east by lot No. 4, south by lot No. 6, (Comfort Chaffee's home lot) and west by lot No. 2.

Comfort Chaffee sold land to each of his eight sons except Warren, the sales to Nathaniel and Comfort, Jr., having been noticed already. He sold to his son, Reuben, on Aug. 22, 1807, (four days after receiving the deed to lot No. 3 from Ebenezer Marvin) fifty-four acres of land, "part of the lots drawn to the original rights of George Goodwin and Daniel Jones," for $200. These lots were Nos. 3 and 6 respectively.

On Nov. 7, 1810, Comfort Chaffee sold to his son, Jasper, for $200, fifty acres in lot "drawn to the right of George Goodwin." This parcel of land was sold by Jasper to his brother, Reuben Chaffee, by two deeds, the first dated Sept. 3, 1813, for $125, deeding "the south part of the farm I now live on," and the second, March 19, 1814, for $100, including "the remaining part of fifty acres not sold Sept. 3, 1813."

Comfort Chaffee sold to his son, Elijah, on June 11, 1822, for $300, thirty-two and one-half acres of land, about twelve acres being in lot No. 3, and the remainder in lot No. 6. He also sold to Elijah, on Aug. 26, 1826, for $100, twelve acres "more or less" "adjoining Elijah's place on the west," and on the same day Elijah quit-claimed to his father his heirship for $100.

On Sept. 30, 1808, Comfort Chaffee bought of Matthew H. Sherman, for $111.50, twenty-two and one-half acres in the lot in the second division "drawn to the right of Joseph Fay." He bought of the same man, Oct. 16, 1809, for $142.50, thirty acres in the same lot. He sold to Samuel Hedge, for $93, July 15, 1815, thirty acres in the same lot.

Comfort Chaffee bought, on Dec. 29, 1818, of Elnathan Keyes, lot No. 20, in the first division, "drawn to the right of Aaron Root," for $250. He sold this lot, Sept. 14, 1820, to his son, John Chaffee, for $300.

He bought of Ira Smith, Jan. 5, 1818, for $90, twenty-five acres "more or less" in lot No. 12, "drawn to the right of Harvey Bell." Lot No. 12 adjoined lot No. 11 on the east, and lot No. 20 was the second lot south of No. 12.

On Aug. 26, 1826, (the same day on which Comfort last sold land to his son Elijah, and the day on which Comfort made his will) he sold to his son, John Chaffee, for $1,000, eighty acres of land in lot No. 6, and twenty-five acres of land in lot No. 12. He took in payment a mortgage for $500 on forty acres of this land, and a life lease to Comfort and Lucy Chaffee for $500, the mortgage and lease being also executed on the same day. This was Comfort's home farm, and it probably included all the land which he then owned.

Other real estate deals of Comfort Chaffee included the purchase, Sept. 13, 1811, from the Rev. Moses Wares, of the south half of the ministerial lot. No. 5, "drawn to the right of the first settled minister," for $225. He sold this land on Sept. 27, 1814, to "Seba French of Clarendon," for $200. Being a modest man, the Rev. Mr. Wares had claimed only one-half of the lot as his right.

On Oct. 27, 1823, Abner Banister quit-claimed to Comfort Chaffee, for $20, the lot of land in the second division, "drawn to the right of Charles Dibble, Jr." Comfort Chaffee bought of the same man on the same day, for $85, fifteen acres "more or less" in lot No. 59, "drawn to the right of Isaac Woodruff." This latter parcel of land Comfort sold to his son, Aaron S. Chaffee, on March 9, 1824, for the same price, $85; and on July 23, 1824, Comfort sold to Aaron the lot "drawn to the right of Charles Dibble, Jr.," for $175. On this latter date, July 23, 1824, Comfort Chaffee gave to "Joshua Brooks of New York city" a mortgage deed of this same lot, "containing one hundred acres more or less," agreeing to pay the sum of $175. This mortgage does not appear to have been discharged, but on April 26, 1824, the same Joshua Brooks deeded to Comfort Chaffee the same lot of land.

In all of these numerous real estate deals of Comfort Chaffee there has been found no record of his giving a mortgage on any of his property except this mortgage for $175 given to Joshua Brooks, and taken up nine months later. Singularly enough, this original mortgage deed has fallen into the possession of S. Carl Carpenter, of Richford, Vt., a great-great-grandson of Comfort Chaffee, and fac-similes of the signature, of Comfort Chaffee and of the witnesses, Jasper Chaffee and Harvey Clark, are given below.

In those early days fences were not plentiful and cattle roamed more or less away from the owner's premises. To establish ownership, each farmer had his own mark in the ear of his cattle, and such marks were duly recorded in the town clerk's office, and they constituted important evidence of ownership. In the list of ear marks of cattle recorded in Berkshire is this, "Chaffee, Comfort. a Slit in the Right Ear, Augt 7th 1802."

In the "Grand List of Berkshire for the year 1803" is found the following:

"Chaffee, Comfort, $74—75"

In the year 1804 appears

"Comfort Chaffee, $102—25"

"Nathaniel Chaffee, 38—00"

And in 1805 the same names

"Chaffee, Comfort, $108—00"

"Chaffee, Nathaniel, 45—25"

The name of Chaffee continues through all succeeding grand lists.

In "A list of the names of the freemen who voted for representative to Congress Dec. 13th A D 1802" is found the name of Comfort Chaffee. In "A List of the freemen who Voted For the Representative to Congress March 1st A D 1803" appears the name of Comfort Chaffee. In a similar list, May 9, 1803, is the same name. The succeeding records show that Comfort Chaffee and his sons were good citizens in the matter of attending the polls. They had their share of ordinary town offices, but never attained to any great political prominence, and in this work no mention of offices held is made except in rare instances.

The town of Berkshire, Vt., was a state grant in the year 1780. It was chartered to contain six miles square, or 23,040 acres; but by a gross error in locating the eastern boundary line it actually extends about seven miles on the southern line, and about six and one-half miles on the northern line, thus including over 2,000 acres more than chartered. It is bounded on the north by the township of St. Armand in the Province of Quebec, Canada, east by Richford, south by Enosburg, and west by Franklin. The Missisquoi river passes through the southeastern part of the town, and Pike river has its origin near the northern line of the town, and takes a circuit of several miles and leaves the town near the northwestern corner. At West Berkshire village on the Pike river is a water power that was quite extensively used in the early days of the town, and is yet the motive power for local work in sawing logs and grinding grain. Berkshire is almost wholly an agricultural town, and in all parts are to be found most excellent farms. There is but a small amount of waste land, and the surface is undulating. Though hilly, the hills are rarely abrupt.

In 1789, the town was surveyed and allotted unto three divisions by Col. David Fay, of Bennington. The lots in the first and second divisions were of one hundred acres each, and those in the third or eastern division of one hundred and forty acres each. There is, however, inaccuracy in the surveys, and in consequence inequality in the size of the lots.

The first permanent settlement in Berkshire was by Job L. Barber on the western bank of the Missisquoi river. He lived there through the summer of 1792, left as winter approached, and returned the following spring. Two other families settled in town the same spring. Settlers came slowly in the next seven years, and when the census of 1800 was taken there were only 172 persons in the entire township. Berkshire reached the high water mark of population at the census of 1850 when 1,955 persons were living in town. Since then the population has decreased slowly. When Comfort Chaffee settled in Berkshire, there was probably a population of a little over 200.

The history of Berkshire is much like that of any quiet rural New England town. No events of national importance have occurred within the borders of the town, but there is a plenty of history of local importance, and in these everyday affairs the Chaffees had their full share.

From "Miss Hemenway's Vermont Historical Gazetteer," in a history of the town of Berkshire by the late Hon. Stephen Royce, the following sketch of "The Chaffee Family" is taken:

"As early as A. D. 1803 or '04, the town became strongly reinforced by the arrival of Mr. Comfort Chaffee from Clarendon, Vt. He settled in the N. W. part of the town, on the road leading north from the present W. Berkshire village, and soon had a handsome and productive farm, with good buildings. For several years he kept a tavern, which was the quiet and safe retreat of the traveler. Most of his sons were then minors, but in due time they were active and energetic men, settling as permanent inhabitants of the town. Nearly all of them became substantial farmers, at the same time participating actively and usefully in the offices and business of the town. One was long a proprietor and conductor in the works on Pike River falls at West Berkshire, especially the excellent grist-mill which was run there; whilst another, in addition to the management of his fine and valuable farm on that stream, was a successful merchant, and discharged the duties of a magistrate. Jasper Chaffee, Esq., the person here alluded to, has lately deceased, after having lived several years in comparative retirement, enjoying the comforts of a highly respectable old age. In short, the town of Berkshire is not a little indebted to the energy and perseverance of the Chaffees for her advance in wealth and improvements—although, contrasted with the progress of communities more centrally and fortunately located, that advance has been moderate and limited."

"The Chaffee Genealogy" says of Comfort Chaffee, "He was very fond of horses and always owned some of the best. He seems to have been something of a pioneer in Berkshire, as he was the first tavern-keeper, and drove the first pair of horses and first double wagon ever used in town." It is related that this double wagon attracted a good deal of attention, and was for a time quite a curiosity. The tavern which Comfort Chaffee owned and managed was on his home place. This was on the highway leading north from West Berkshire to Frelighsburg, Que., a road much traveled in early days. Comfort Chaffee was succeeded as tavern-keeper by his son, John Chaffee, who afterward moved the main part of the tavern across the highway to the eastern side, and built a substantial two-story brick farm-house on the site of the tavern. The old tavern is still standing, and the ell part of the tavern forms the ell part of the present farm-house. As Comfort Chaffee erected this tavern some years before he died in 1828, it must be nearly or quite one hundred years old.

Comfort and Lucy Chaffee were members of the Baptist church, and were persons of strong religious tendencies. Through the kindness of Mrs. Hoyt Burt (See No. 151) the writer is in possession of two books that were owned by Comfort Chaffee. The first, entitled "Heart's Ease in Heart-Trouble," is by John Bunyan, author of "Pilgrim's Progress." It was printed in "Brattleborough" in 1813. The inscription on the fly-leaf reads,

"Comfort Chaffees
Book Bought
in 1815

"If I this Book should lend
& you this Book should borrow pray read it throu to Day
& send it hom tomorrow"

The other book is "The Life and Character of the Late Reverend, Learned and Pious Mr. Jonathan Edwards." It was printed in 1804, and the inscription on the fly-leaf reads,

"Comfort Chaffees
Book Berkshire
July the 15 1820"

In the year before Comfort Chaffee's death, he gave one dollar toward a fund for new buildings for the University of Vermont, Burlington, as appears by the following receipt now in the possession of A. B. Chaffee, Jr., of Montreal:

"This certifies that Comfort Chaffee, one of the friends and patrons of the UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT, has paid the sum of one dollar, for the benefit of the Corporation of the University of Vermont, to be appropriated in the erection of new college buildings; for which he is entitled to the thanks of the Corporation, and of a liberal public.

"1827.

"Received by Elijah Phelps, Agent."

In these days when educational institutions depend largely on multi-millionaires for endowments it seems singularly "slow" to think of a fund raised from the common people by subscriptions of one dollar or more each.

Mrs. Lucy S. Chaffee (No. 52) now living at the age of 89 years, remembers her grandfather, Comfort Chaffee, who died when she was five and one-half years of age. She describes him as a short, thick-set man with light complexion, blue eyes and sandy hair. She can recall how he used to sit in his chair, grasping the head of his cane with both hands, his head bowed over and his forehead resting on his hands. Lucy (Stow) Chaffee, wife of Comfort, is said to have been a stout woman, not very tall, fair complexion and blue eyes. Blue eyes and light hair, with a fair complexion, is the rule among the descendants of Comfort and Lucy Chaffee, although there are some exceptions. In stature they are usually short to medium, and inclined in many cases to be rather stout. No pictures or likenesses of either Comfort or Lucy Chaffee are to be found, and doubtless none were ever taken.

After disposing of his real estate, making his will, and retiring from active life, Comfort Chaffee lived only one and one-half years. Lucy, his wife, however, lived on for seventeen years and one month after his death, and lacked but a few weeks of being 87 years old when she died. She was stricken with paralysis four or five years before her death, her speech was affected so that she could not readily make herself understood, and she was confined to her bed, being more helpless than an infant. The care of her was a great burden, and her son, John Chaffee, and his wife gave her loving care, and dearly earned the property they received in exchange for the life lease to Comfort and Lucy.

This chapter deals almost wholly with Comfort Chaffee, and but little is said of his wife. It needs the vivid imagination of the poet or novelist, rather than the matter-of-fact style of the narrator, to portray properly the life of such pioneer women as the wife, daughter and daughters-in-law of Comfort Chaffee, women who had to do not only their housework and care for a large family, but who must also spin the yarn, weave the cloth and make the clothing for these large families. If there was a carpet on the floor of the best room, or rugs in any part of the house, they were hand made by the mother. In addition to all such duties, these hard-working women sometimes added to the meagre income by weaving cloth for other families. Truly, theirs was a life of hard toil. "The Pioneer Farmer's Wife" is pictured by Roscoe Brumbaugh, in "The Youth's Companion," as follows:

"She never murmured at her lot,
 'Twas toil and spin the whole day through;
 From that rough path she wandered not,
 For better things she never knew.

"Though borne down with a world of care,
 And though her life was edged with gray,
 She never asked that skies be fair,
 But scattered smiles along the way.

"Of daily duties to be done,
 A slave and drudge from morn till night,
 Her lot seemed all a thankless one,
 Since from her toil came no respite.

"But after all, she may have seen
 Some ray of hope no other knew;
 A song, a star, a world of green—
 The secret of her faith come true."

After the settlement in Berkshire, all of Comfort Chaffee's sons remained in town the rest of their lives, except that Aaron S. Chaffee sold his Berkshire farm, June 1, 1857, and removed to Westfield, Orleans county, Vt., where he lived until death, and Elijah Chaffee passed a few of the last years of his life in South Stukely, Que., with his daughter, Mrs. Jenne. The daughter, Lucy (Chaffee) Kendall, passed the larger part of her married life in the adjoining town of Enosburg. For fifty-five years after Comfort Chaffee moved his family to Berkshire, his children and grandchildren remained in Berkshire, the adjoining town of Enosburg, or just across the Canadian boundary line in St. Armand, except that Reuben's son, Ithamar S. Chaffee, Elijah's son, Horace E. Chaffee, Aaron's son, Sylvester A. Chaffee, and three of Lucy's children, Lucy (Kendall) Thurber, Aaron Kendall and William Kendall, had emigrated to Wisconsin; Jasper's daughter, Hannah F. (Chaffee) Beeman, had removed to New York state; Aaron's daughter, Elvira R. (Chaffee) Redding had removed to Massachusetts, and a few other grandchildren had married and settled in other northern Vermont towns. Though the Berkshire Chaffees were isolated from their Chaffee relatives in Rutland county, Vt., and in Rehoboth, Mass., and had but little knowledge of such relatives, or of their Chaffee ancestry, yet nearly all lived in one community for such a long time that each kept a knowledge of all of the other members of this branch which is rarely found in families where the descendants are so numerous.

Comfort and Lucy Chaffee, with the other heirs of David Stow, settled a quitclaim in Worcester, Mass., June 10, 1813. In a list of Revolutionary pensioners in 1840 appears the name of Lucy Chaffee, aged 82 years, living with her son, John Chaffee. This pension was secured largely through the efforts of her youngest son, Aaron S. Chaffee.

Comfort Chaffee made his will, Aug. 26, 1826, but this will was never probated, neither is there a record in the office of the Probate Court at St. Albans, Vt., of any settlement of his estate. The writer has been unable to learn why this will was not probated, or some settlement of the estate made. It may be that the property was divided, by mutual consent of the legatees, in accordance with the terms of the will. This will is now in the possession of Mr. A. B. Chaffee, of Montreal, having been found with many other interesting old papers in a trunk left by his grandfather, Jasper Chaffee, son of Comfort Chaffee. The full text of the will follows:

Comfort and Lucy Chaffee are buried in the cemetery near the village of West Berkshire. Here, also, are buried their sons, Nathaniel, Reuben, Jasper, Comfort, Jr., John and Elijah, with the wife of Reuben, the first wife of Jasper, the wife of Comfort, Jr., and John, the two wives of Elijah, and the second wife of Warren; also, their daughter, Lucy, and husband, Seth Kendall. Warren and his first wife are buried in the cemetery south of Berkshire Center, and Aaron and wife are buried in a cemetery in Westfield, Vt. In this West Berkshire cemetery are buried many of the grandchildren of Comfort and Lucy Chaffee, together with their husbands and wives, children, grandchildren, etc. The list of descendants of Comfort Chaffee buried in this cemetery is a long one, and is probably larger than the number of persons buried therein who are descended from any other settler of Berkshire. In the cemetery at Berkshire Center are also buried many Chaffees and Chaffee descendants. The inscriptions on the tombstones of Comfort and Lucy Chaffee read as follows:

SEVENTH GENERATION.

2 Nathaniel ⁷ Chaffee, (Comfort,^a Nathaniel,^b Nathaniel,^c Jonathan,^d Nathaniel,^e Thomas¹) b. Feb. 22, 1783, (prob.) Adams, Mass.; d. July 24, 1821, Berkshire, Vt.; m. Polly Hibbard. Nathaniel Chaffee was a farmer, and bought of his father, Comfort Chaffee, April 13, 1804, fifty acres of land, the eastern part of lot No. 11, in Berkshire, for $100. On the following day, April 14, Nathaniel Chaffee gave to his father, for $200, a quit-claim deed of "all my right, title, Interest, claim or demand to any estate, either real or personal, of the aforesaid Comfort, his heirs, executors & administrators by virtue of heirship & do by these presents bind myself, my heirs, executors & administrators to ever quitclaim to him the sd Comfort his heirs executors & administrators all my right, title, interest, claim or demand to the above mentioned premises." This deed was not recorded on the town records until June 11, 1822, nearly a year after Nathaniel's death. It was probably recorded then as a precaution against Nathaniel's widow claiming a share of Comfort Chaffee's estate. Nathaniel Chaffee sold this same land to Davis Watton, Jr., Sept. 4, 1809, for $600, the deed of which is signed by Nathaniel Chaffee and Polly Chaffee, indicating that Nathaniel was married some time before this date. Mr. Watton did not keep this land long, as he sold it back to Nathaniel Chaffee, Dec. 19, 1809, for the same price, $600. On Sept. 21, 1814, Nathaniel Chaffee sold to "Henry Green of Clarendon," for $300, fifty acres of land in the eastern part of lot No. 11. Why he should sell this land in 1809 for twice as much as in 1814 does not appear. In the grand list of Berkshire for 1804, Nathaniel Chaffee's list is given as $38.00, and in 1805 as $45.25, showing an increase in taxable property. The grand list record for other years is not repeated here. Nathaniel Chaffee's recorded ear mark for cattle was a "Swallow's tail on the end of the right Ear, recorded March 21st 1811." But little is known of Nathaniel Chaffee, but some of the older grandchildren of his brothers say that they have heard it said of "Uncle Nat" that he lived unhappily with his wife, that he once said that if he did not get a divorce from "that woman" soon he hoped God Almighty would give him one; and that he died not long after. He is buried in the West Berkshire cemetery. His brother Jasper Chaffee, was administrator of his estate. As far as known no portrait or likeness of Nathaniel Chaffee was ever taken. No children were born to Nathaniel Chaffee. After his death, his widow married (2) a Mr. Stimson, and had two children.

3 Reuben ⁷ Chaffee, (Comfort,^a Nathaniel,^b Nathaniel,^c Jonathan,^d Nathaniel,^e Thomas¹) b. Jan. 23, 1785, (prob.) Clarendon, Vt.; d. Oct. 8, 1842, Berkshire, Vt.; m. Sept. 27, 1807, in Berkshire, by Elam Jewett, justice of the peace, to Sally Danforth, dau. of William⁶ Danforth, of Billerica, Mass., (William,⁵ Jonathan,⁴ Samuel,³ Jonathan,² Nicholas¹) and Priscilla (Hoadley) Danforth, b. March 20, 1783, Fitchburg, Mass., d. June 10, 1873, Berkshire. She was a sister of Priscilla Danforth who was successively the wife of Reuben Chaffee's brothers, Comfort and John Chaffee. For a brief sketch of the Danforth family, see a chapter in the latter part of this work. The Berkshire records show that Reuben Chaffee was among the persons who took the freeman's oath, Sept. 2, 1806. On Aug. 22, 1807, but a few weeks before his marriage, he bought of his father, Comfort Chaffee, fifty-four acres of land in lots Nos. 3 and 6, for $200. By two deeds, on Sept. 3, 1813, and March 19, 1814, one for $125 and one for $100, Reuben Chaffee bought of his brother, Jasper Chaffee, the fifty acres in lot No. 3 which Jasper had bought of his father Nov. 7, 1810. This gave Reuben the title to nearly all of lot No. 3. The record of ear marks of cattle gives "Chaffee, Reuben. Swallows tail on the end of the left Ear, recorded May 31st 1810" Reuben Chaffee was a farmer, and his farm was directly north of his father's farm, and on the highway leading to Frelighsburg, Que. It adjoined Canada on the north. After Reuben Chaffee's death his farm was owned by his son, Samuel L. Chaffee, and is now owned by Reuben's grandson, Cortes S. Chaffee, who resides thereon. Reuben Chaffee was a stout man, becoming very corpulent in his last years. He died of dropsy, and is buried in the West Berkshire cemetery. No portrait or likeness of Reuben Chaffee remains, but a picture of his wife is given in this book. His will was admitted to probate in St. Albans, Vt., Oct. 26, 1842.

Children, born in Berkshire:

- +12 ii Sally Chaffee, b. Jan. 30, 1810; d. Dec. 27, 1811, Berkshire.
- +13 iii Samuel Luther Chaffee, b. Sept. 3, 1812; m. Ursula S. Jones.
- +14 iv. Reuben Chaffee, Jr., b. March 31, 1814; m. Lucy C. Brice.

- +17 vii Albert Chaffee, b. May 25, 1820, m. (1) Nancy C. Brice; (2) Mrs. Lucy S. (Chaffee) Woodworth.
- +18 viii Sally Miranda Chaffee, b. July 6, 1822; m. John Armstrong.

4 Lucy ⁷ Chaffee, (Comfort, ⁶ Nathaniel, ⁵ Nathaniel, ⁴ Jonathan, ³ Nathaniel, ² Thomas ¹) b. Jan. 3, 1787, Clarendon, Vt.; d. Aug. 3, 1863, Sheldon, Vt.; m. Jan. 2, 1806, in Berkshire, Vt., by Chester Weld, justice of the peace, to Seth Kendall, son of Capt. William ⁴ Kendall, of Franklin, Vt., (Ebenezer, ³ Jacob, ² Francis ¹) b. Oct. 13, 1779, (prob.) Salisbury, Vt., d. Jan. 25, 1846, West Berkshire, Vt. For a sketch of the Kendall family, see a later chapter in this work. Seth Kendall was a carriage maker, and also he was for several years engaged in various manufacturing industries at Enosburg Falls, Vt., with his brother, Samuel Kendall. The greater part of the married life of Seth and Lucy (Chaffee) Kendall was passed in Enosburg Falls, but in later life they moved to West Berkshire village, where Seth died. Lucy lived with her daughter, Polly (Kendall) Burt, about a mile below Enosburg Falls and in the edge of the town of Sheldon, Vt., dying there in 1863. A picture of Lucy (Chaffee) Kendall is given in this work, but it is believed that no picture or likeness of Seth Kendall was ever taken. The births of the oldest four children of Seth and Lucy Kendall are recorded on the town records of Berkshire, but a diligent inquiry among the older living grandchildren of Seth and Lucy leads to the belief that all of their children were born in Enosburg Falls, as no one remembers of hearing anything said of their living in Berkshire during early married life. No record of children's births was found on the Enosburg town records.

Children, probably all born in Enosburg Falls:

- +21 i Lucy ⁸ Kendall, b. Sept. 10, 1806; m. Russell Thurber.
- +22 ii Seth Kendall, Jr., b. Feb. 6, 1808; m. Polly M. Burt.
- +23 iii Polly Kendall, b. Sept. 24, 1809; m. Arnold Burt.
- +24 iv Anna Kendall, b. Sept. 18, 1811; m. Nathan Chadbourn.
- +25 v Aaron Kendall, b. (about) 1813; m. Anna D. Williams.
- +26 vi Phebe Kendall, b. Oct. 11, 1815; m. Samuel Hicks.
- +27 vii Nathan Kendall, b. May 5, 1819; m. Eliza G. Emery.
- +28 viii Matildia Silva Kendall, b. Nov. 14, 1820; m. Silas W. Noble.

5 Jasper⁷ Chaffee, (Comfort,⁶ Nathaniel,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. Oct. 4, 1789, Rutland, Vt.; d. July 9, 1867, Berkshire, Vt.; m. (1) Nov. 4, 1810, in Berkshire, by Elam Jewett, justice of the peace, to Hannah Burleson, dau. of John Burleson, "of Providence, R. I.," and sister of the first wife of his brother, Warren Chaffee, b. July 17, 1790, Pownal, Vt., d. Aug. 21, 1854, Berkshire; (2) April 28, 1856, in Enosburg, Vt., by Elder Bryant, to Clara H. Tracy. (No record of her birth, death or parentage could be found by the compiler.) Jasper Chaffee was first a farmer, and on Nov. 7, 1810, he bought of his father, Comfort Chaffee, fifty acres of land in lot No. 3, for $200. This land adjoined the Canadian boundary line and was immediately west of the farm of his brother, Reuben. Jasper built a house on the west side of the highway and only thirty or forty yards from the international boundary line. The place where the cellar was dug can yet be seen. There is a tradition that on the day when one of Jasper's children was born a party of Indians, returning from a trip into Vermont, stopped at this house and demanded food. This was set before them, and these Indians ate all of the cooked food in the house. When they started on their journey, the Indians lined up at the boundary and fired a salute. This frightened the family very much for a time, but it proved to be a custom of the Indians when they passed the boundary, the imaginary line being held in a kind of awe or reverence by them. Jasper sold this place to his brother, Reuben Chaffee, by two deeds, dated Sept. 3, 1813, and March 19, 1814, for $225. The first recorded ear mark for Jasper Chaffee's cattle was "a square crop off the right ear and a slit in the end of both," recorded Nov. 6, 1813. He may have bought the cattle belonging to his brother, Nathaniel Chaffee, after the latter's death, as we find recorded on Oct. 18, 1822, "Jasper Chaffee's ear mark, a swallow's tail on the end of the right ear," which had been Nathaniel's ear mark. Jasper Chaffee was quite a land owner, the most valuable farm property that he owned being what has been called "the Yaw farms" on the Pike river between West Berkshire and Berkshire Center. At the time that Jasper Chaffee owned these farms they were estimated to be worth $20,000. They are now owned by Dwight E. Weld, (See No. 196) and Oscar Bowen. Later in life Mr. Chaffee was the leading merchant of West Berkshire for many years, and did a large business for a country village. He accumulated a considerable property for those days. His youngest son, Azro B. Chaffee, was executor of his estate. Jasper and Hannah (Burleson) Chaffee are buried in the West Berkshire cemetery. Pictures of Jasper Chaffee and his two wives are given in this work.

6 Comfort⁷ Chaffee, Jr., (Comfort,⁶ Nathaniel,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. Feb. 8, 1792, Clarendon, Vt.; d. Dec. 17, 1813, Berkshire, Vt.; m. Oct. 27, 1811, in Berkshire, by the Rev. Moses Wares, to Priscilla Danforth, dau. of William⁶ Danforth, (William,⁵ Jonathan,⁴ Samuel,³ Jonathan,² Nicholas¹) and Priscilla (Hoadley) Danforth, of Billerica, Mass., and sister of Sally Danforth, wife of his brother, Reuben Chaffee, b. Aug. 28, 1790, Hartland, Vt., d. March 1, 1880, Berkshire. See a sketch of the Danforth family later in this work. Comfort Chaffee, Jr., was a farmer, and on Feb. 9, 1813, he bought of his father, Comfort Chaffee, for $200, forty acres of land in the western part of lot No. 11, the lot on which his brother, Nathaniel, owned fifty acres in the eastern part. The estate of Comfort Chaffee, Jr., was settled by his older brother, Reuben, the widow waiving her rights as administratrix. The real estate was divided between the widow and father. After the death of Comfort Chaffee, Jr., Mrs. Priscilla (Danforth) Chaffee, married (2) John Chaffee, his younger brother. (See No. 8.) Comfort Chaffee quit-claimed to his son, John Chaffee, his part of this forty acres of land, so that John Chaffee and wife continued to own it. No picture or likeness of Comfort Chaffee, Jr., remains. He is buried in the West Berkshire cemetery.

Child, born and died in Berkshire:

39 i Comfort Chaffee, Jr., (a posthumous son) b. June 3, 1814; d. July 13, 1822.

7 Warren⁷ Chaffee, (Comfort,⁶ Nathaniel,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel² Thomas¹) b. April 24, 1794, Clarendon, Vt.; d. March 4, 1867, Berkshire, Vt.; m. (1) Oct. 9, 1814, in Berkshire, by Harvey Clark, justice of the peace, to Sally Burleson, dau. of John Burleson, of Providence, R. I., and sister of the first wife of his brother, Jasper Chaffee, b. March 18, 1797, New Haven, Vt., d. April 20, 1855, Berkshire; (2) April 4, 1857, in Berkshire, by William C. Ellsworth, justice of the peace, to Prutia Hildreth, b. (about) 1800, d. Oct. 14, 1888, "aged 88 years." (The compiler did not learn the ancestry of Prutia Hildreth.) Warren Chaffee was a farmer. On June 15, 1815, he bought of William J. Smith, for $300, the lot of land in the first division of Berkshire, "drawn to the right of Erastus Sergeant." He sold this lot to his uncle, Silas Stow, Oct. 2, 1818, for $400. This was lot No. 13, and adjoined lot No. 12 on the south and lot No. 20 on the north, lots of land bought wholly or in part by his father, Comfort Chaffee, in 1818. Warren Chaffee bought of Darius Adams, Nov. 14, 1818, for $500, the lot of land "drawn to the right of Hezekiah Parmalee," and the same day gave back a mortgage for $500. This was lot No 53 in the first division, and was in the southern part of the town, about two miles from Berkshire Center, on the highway leading to Enosburg Falls. Here Warren Chaffee lived the remainder of his life, and the farm passed to his oldest son, Harmon Chaffee, and is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Brigham, of Bakersfield, Vt., Mrs. Brigham being a daughter of Harmon Chaffee. (See No. 214.) In the Berkshire records is found "Chaffee Warren's Ear mark three slits in the right ear Recd & recorded" Warren Chaffee served as a private in the War of 1812, and was captured and held a prisoner for six months. He received one hundred and sixty acres of land from the government for his services. Pictures of Warren Chaffee and his second wife are given in this work. It is not known that any picture of his first wife, Sally Burleson, was ever taken. Warren Chaffee and his first wife are buried in the Berkshire Center cemetery. His second wife is buried in the cemetery at West Berkshire.

Comfort Chaffee, Jr., (See No. 6) and sister of the wife of his brother, Reuben Chaffee. She was the daughter of William⁶ Danforth, (William,⁵ Jonathan,⁴ Samuel,³ Jonathan,² Nicholas¹) and Priscilla (Hoadley) Danforth, b. Aug. 28, 1790, Hartland, Vt., d. March 1, 1880, Berkshire. See a sketch of the Danforth family in the latter part of this work. John Chaffee was a farmer. He bought land of his father, Comfort Chaffee, on Sept. 14, 1820, Nov. 5, 1822, and Aug. 26, 1826, the last of these purchases including the home farm of his father. John Chaffee also succeeded his father as tavern-keeper, and he accumulated a comfortable property. He moved the main part of the old, one-story tavern across the highway to the east side, and built a substantial two-story brick farm house on the site. This farm is now owned and occupied by John Chaffee's son, Homer S. Chaffee. The town records have this entry, "John Chaffee's Ear mark a slanting crop off the upper side of the left ear, recorded Nov. 20th 1818." The record of these ear marks of cattle is of interest as showing the time when such persons became owners of cattle in numbers sufficient to require identification. John and Priscilla Chaffee cared for Comfort and Lucy Chaffee in the last years of the lives of the latter, for which they received $500—a life lease executed Aug. 26, 1826. When John Chaffee was a small boy he put out one eye while playing with a penknife. Pictures of John and Priscilla Chaffee are given in this work. Their graves may be seen in the West Berkshire cemetery.

(1) March 24, 1822, in Fletcher, Vt., to Electa L. Rood, dau. of Briggs Rood, a Revolutionary soldier, b. Sept. 24, 1800, Fletcher, Vt., d. Sept. 25, 1824, Berkshire, Vt.; (2) Dec. 23, 1824, in Berkshire, by the Rev. Phineas Bailey, to Julia Robigne Comings, dau. of Samuel⁷ Comings (Benjamin,⁶ Samuel,⁵ John,⁴ John,³ John,² Isaac¹) and Lydia (Marsh) Comings, b. Nov. 17, 1803, Berkshire, d. Sept. 16, 1884, South Stukely. A sketch of the Comings family is given later in this work. Elijah Chaffee was first a farmer and afterward a miller. By two deeds, dated June 11, 1822, and Aug. 26, 1826, he bought of his father, Comfort Chaffee, for $400, about forty-four and one-half acres in lots Nos. 3 and 6, being land adjoining his father's home place on the north, and also near to and adjoining the farm of his brother, Reuben Chaffee. On the latter date, Elijah quit-claimed to Comfort his heirship for $100. On April 21, 1824, there is recorded "Elijah Chaffee's Ear mark a hole through the right and a slit out from it." Elijah Chaffee later removed to West Berkshire village, and for many years conducted the grist mill on the falls there. He resided in Berkshire the larger part of his life, but his last years were passed with his daughter, Mrs. Jenne, at South Stukely, Que. No picture of Elijah Chaffee's first wife remains, but pictures of Mr. Chaffee and his second wife are given in this book. Elijah Chaffee and both of his wives are buried in the West Berkshire cemetery.

10 Aaron Stowe⁷ Chaffee, (Comfort,⁶ Nathaniel,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. Aug. 18, 1802, Berkshire, Vt.; d. Feb. 9, 1887, Westfield, Vt.; m. Feb. 26, 1823, in Enosburg, Vt., to Polly Whipple Hill, dau. of James Hill, Jr., a Revolutionary soldier, and Rebecca⁴ (Elliot) Hill, (Jonathan,³ Jonathan,² Daniel¹ of Salem, Mass.) Polly W. Hill was born July 31, 1803, Williamstown, Vt., d. Feb. 20, 1874, Westfield. Aaron S. Chaffee was a farmer. He bought of his father, Comfort Chaffee, on March 9, 1824, for $85, fifteen acres "more or less" in the lot of land in the first division of Berkshire, "drawn to the right of Isaac Woodruff." This was in lot No. 59. On July 23 of the same year, Aaron bought of his father the lot of land in the first division "drawn to the right of Charles Dibble, Jr.," for $175. This was lot No. 60, and was directly east of and adjoined lot No. 59. It also adjoined and was south of the lot owned by Aaron's brother, Warren Chaffee. Aaron Chaffee bought of Aaron Hoadley, on March 26, 1826, for $49, "about 19 acres and 6 rods in the lot in the first division drawn to the right of Isaac Woodruff." This land adjoined the first purchase made by Aaron S. Chaffee, and was in lot No. 59. This latter lot was directly north of and adjoined the lot that Comfort Chaffee sold to William Danforth on Nov. 20, 1806. After marriage, Aaron S. Chaffee and wife lived for a short time with his father, Comfort Chaffee, and brother, Warren Chaffee, until their house on the adjoining farm was completed. This farm was about two miles south of Berkshire Center on the highway leading to Enosburg Falls, and is now owned by C. R. Colpitts, but for more than fifty years has been known as the Spencer Stanhope farm. Under date of March 9, 1824, is recorded "Aaron Chaffee's ear mark a swallows tail in the right ear and a crop off the left." Aaron S. Chaffee sold to his son, James H. Chaffee, on June 1, 1857, his Berkshire home, and moved to Orleans county, buying a farm on Westfield "north hill" where he resided the remainder of his life. This latter farm passed to his youngest son, Bethuel M. Chaffee, by whom it is still owned and occupied. The longevity of the children of Aaron S. Chaffee and wife is rather remarkable for so large a family. None have died under the age of seventy years, and two have lived to be over eighty. All were married, and all but one had children who grew to adult age. Pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee appear in this work. Both Aaron S. Chaffee and wife are buried in a cemetery in Westfield.

"Swansea records give one Cromell Thurber, whom I believe to be the Cromwell Thurber in question and whose name I believe was incorrectly recorded, as the son of Edward, Jr.,⁵ (Edward,⁴ Richard,³ Edward,² John¹). Cromell, who, I believe, was this same Cromwell, was born Feb. 13, 1765, in Swansea, Mass. Edward Jr.'s wife was Abigail Eddy. Edward⁴ married Hopestill Luther. July, 1867, in La Valle, Wis.; to Rachel Rebecca Dearholt, b. April 7, 1848, at Ellicott City, near the old Ellicott's Mills in the vicinity of Baltimore, Md., which mills were the property of her family. She was the daughter of Henry and Ann (Criswell) Dearholt, and came north after the close of the Civil War in 1865. The Dearholt family remained loyal to both sides through that war, and harbored both Union and Confederate soldiers, sick and wounded, at the same time, flew both flags, and was never molested. George D. Thurber tells this incident of the opening of the war:

"On a Sunday morning in April, 1861, my mother and her brothers were attending Sunday-school over a mile from home, when a German neighbor came riding down the pike and hollered in the door of the old schoolhouse, 'Run fer yer lifes! De Rebs have made a raid and are gon' to take Baltimer befer night!' It didn't take them long to make their getaway, and they arrived home just in time to tell their father that Gilmore and his band were coming, and to suggest that he 'fix' the old horse or the raiders would take it. My grandfather had one of the boys hold up the right fore foot of the horse while he tied a linen cord tightly about the fetlock. When Gilmore came along he said, 'Well, Hank, I'm going to take your horse.' My grandfather replied, 'Harry, the old horse is lame in its right fore leg, and it won't be of any use to you.' Gilmore, in return, said, 'Hank, you and I have always been great friends, but I am going to find out whether you are lying or not.' So he ordered one of his men to dismount, go in the barn and take out the horse, telling him not to cut the rope but to untie it, which was done. The man brought out the horse, and Gilmore found it to be just as my grandfather had said, it was lame in the right fore foot. He then ordered the man to take the horse back to the barn and tie him up again, and then bade the family 'Good bye' and went on his way. He told my grandfather that when the war was over they would meet again and renew their friendship. Whether they did or not I have never been able to learn."

Mrs. Thurber was injured in a cyclone in 1881, and has never fully recovered, being in poor health. At this time the family lost a large portion of the personal property. Mr. Thurber was a teamster, and worked at various jobs. Mrs. Thurber now resides at Reedsburg, Wis.

Utter, to Silas Beal, son of the Rev. Thomas and Sarah (Loveless) Beal, b. June 11, 1838, Chillicothe, Ohio.

The following extract from a lengthy and most entertaining letter to the compiler, written Oct. 27, 1910, by Mr. Silas Beal, is believed to be so interesting that it is worthy of introduction here. Of the remainder of the letter, a considerable portion is taken to relate facts given in the record of the families of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Beal.

"My grandfather, Philip Beal, was born and raised near Harpers Ferry, Virginia. In the year 1808 William Pryor, then living near Harpers Ferry, moved to Ohio (then known as the great west). Pryor had a daughter, Mary, who went west with the family. Philip Beal had been greatly attached to Miss Pryor but had not the courage to let her know the full state of his heart, so they said 'Good bye', and the caravan moved off, after which Philip found he had lost his heart. He worried all day and all night, and then determined to take a fast horse and overtake the caravan, for there were many wagons in the train.

"Just as the train of wagons were making camp the evening of the second day out, Phil rode into camp. Everybody thought he had concluded to go west with them. He reined his horse in the direction of Pryor's wagon, and I think that Mary Pryor could have made the most rational guess what had brought him into camp. After the evening cares were over and all had retired, Mary and Phil sat near a log fire, and Phil showed Mary all that was in his heart, and Mary consented to marry him and arranged for him to come to Ohio the next year.

"So Phil went back home next morning with a light heart to shape his life so as to go to his Mary the next year, all of which came to pass, and they were married in due time. The next year, 1810, there was a boy baby born to them, and they named him Harvey. This boy grew to manhood, and when about nineteen years old he married Sarah Loveless, who was two years his junior. They raised a large family, I being the sixth child. Since I have been made acquainted with this story, I have ever been glad that Phil mustered up courage to follow Mary.

"When I was an infant (in 1838) my parents brought me to Indiana where I grew to manhood. My mother died when I was about ten years old. I had three step-mothers in my life which filled her place fairly well. They were all good women. I had three sisters older than I which were a great protection to me all through life. I had a brother, Tom, born next to me, and we grew up together. We enlisted in the war together—Co. A, 40th Indiana Vol. Inf.—for three years, or during the war. When his time was within seventeen days of being out he was killed and I had to come home alone. Tom and I had grown up together. We had plowed the corn in the stumpy fields, walking side by side, and when the war came on neither would let the one go without the other went along to share the dangers and hardships. We went through Shiloh and Stony River, the most terrible conflicts of the war, without a scratch. We were in many other fights of note. I came home in February, 1864, on a furlough, and while at home I became acquainted with Elizabeth Lovinda Brown. I had a thirty-days furlough. It was soon past, and I went back to the war and stayed until the 8th of December, when I got my discharge."

Mr. Beal served in the Civil War, enlisting Sept. 7, 1861, at Stockwell, Ind., in Co. A, 40th Ind. Vol. Inf., for three years; mustered out, Dec. 8, 1864, at Indianapolis, Ind., having served three years and three months. THE BRADDOCK CHAFFEE LINE.

FIRST GENERATION.

Thomas Chaffe, the immigrant ancestor, was owning land in Hingham, Mass., in 1635. His will mentions sons Nathaniel and Joseph. See pages 1 to 4 for further record.

SECOND GENERATION.

Nathaniel² Chaffe, (Thomas¹) b. (about) 1638 to 1642, d. in September, 1721; m. Experience Bliss; resided in Rehoboth, Mass., and had eleven children. See pages 4 and 5 for further record.

THIRD GENERATION.

Jonathan³ Chaffe, (Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. April 7, 1678; d. Dec. 31, 1766; m. to Hannah Carpenter; resided in Rehoboth, Mass., and had twelve children. See pages 5 and 6 for further record.

FOURTH GENERATION.

Dan⁴ Chaffe, (Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. Feb. 6, 1710-11, Rehoboth, Mass.; d. (prob.) in the autumn of 1796, Rehoboth; m. Nov. 9, 1736, in Rehoboth, to Mary Robinson, dau. of John Robinson. She died before Dec. 10, 1790, as in her husband's will of that date she is not mentioned. Dan Chaffe is called "yeoman" in the records. He held minor offices, and owned considerable land in Rehoboth, Mass., where he resided. A more extended account of his land dealings, etc., may be found in "The Chaffee Genealogy" from which this sketch is compiled. Dan Chaffe's will was probated Nov. 1, 1796, and his son, Jonathan Chaffe, was the executor of the will.

Children, born in Rehoboth:

- i William⁵ Chaffe, b. Aug. 15, 1737; m. Catherine Thomas.
- ii Dan Chaffe, Jr., b. March 16, 1739-40; d. Aug. 24, 1746, Rehoboth.
- iii Jonathan Chaffe, b. Oct. 16, 1742; m. Mary Coomer.
- iv Robinson Chaffe, b. Feb. 16, 1744-5; d. Aug. 29, 1746, Rehoboth.
- v Dan Chaffe, Jr., b. Sept. 17, 1747; probably d. before 1790.
- vi Robinson Chaffe, b. April 13, 1750; m. Rachel Peck.
- vii Judith Chaffe, b. Oct. 30, 1753; probably d. before 1790.
- +viii Braddock Chaffe, b. Nov. 1, 1756; m. Sarah Brown.

FIFTH GENERATION.

Braddock⁵ Chaffee, (Dan,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. Nov. 1, 1756, Rehoboth, Mass.; d. between March 10 and May 13, 1813, (prob.) in Vermont; m. Aug. 23, 1781, in Rehoboth, to Sarah Brown, b. (about) 1765, d. Jan. 21, 1836, Leicester, Vt., while on a journey from Clarendon, Vt., to Berkshire, Vt.

Braddock Chaffee served in the Revolutionary War, his military record, taken from the "Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution," being as follows:

"Chaffee, Braddock. Private, Capt. Joseph Franklin's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt., marched from Rehoboth to Bristol on the alarm at Rhode Island of December 8, 1776; service, 16 days; also, Capt. Jabez Bullock's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt.; enlisted July 27, 1780; discharged July 31, 1780; service, 5 days, at Tiverton, R. I., on an alarm; roll sworn to at Rehoboth; also, same co. and regt.; enlisted August 1, 1780; discharged Aug. 9, 1780; service, 9 days, under Gen. Heath; marched to Tiverton, R. I., on an alarm; roll sworn to at Rehoboth.

"Chaffe, Braddock. Sergeant, Capt. Nathaniel Ide's co., commanded by Capt.

Samuel Fisher, Col. Carpenter's regt.; enlisted Aug. 13, 1779; discharged Sept. 12, 1779; service, 1 mo., at Rhode Island; company detached for 4 weeks service."

Braddock Chaffee was born in the same year as Comfort⁶ Chaffee, and was a first cousin of Nathaniel Chaffee, Jr., the father of Comfort Chaffee. As Braddock and Comfort were born in Rehoboth, and both served in Col. Carpenter's regiment in the Revolution, we may well suppose that they were playmates in boyhood and companions in their youth. Their children were of about equal age. On Jan. 28, 1801, Braddock Chaffee, of Rehoboth, bought of Comfort Chaffee, of Clarendon, Vt., for $1,200, the home farm of the latter "containing by estimation 76 1-2 acres." (See pages 12 and 13.)

The compiler's attention was first drawn to this family in May, 1909, while walking through the cemetery south of Berkshire Center, Vt. A blue slatestone marker was found at the grave of "Sarah, wife of Braddock Chaffee." The inscription is the old style script once so common, and as the letters are not deeply cut the inscription is difficult to read. By the side of this stone is a small slab of common field stone on which two letters are rudely chiseled. These look much like "B L" but may be "B C" for Braddock Chaffee. Whether he is buried here the compiler did not learn. His death is not recorded on the records of Clarendon, Rutland or Berkshire, Vt. He made his will March 10, 1813, and the same was offered for probate May 13, 1813, showing that he died between these dates, and probably near the latter date. He probably died in Clarendon, Rutland county.

In January, 1836, Cromwell Bowen, of Berkshire, made a trip to Clarendon. Mrs. Sally Green and Mrs. Mary Birch, daughters of Braddock Chaffee and residents of Berkshire, arranged with Mr. Bowen to bring their mother, the widow of Braddock Chaffee, to Berkshire on his return. While at Clarendon it was further arranged that Mr. Bowen should also carry to Berkshire Luthera Marion Chaffee, the twelve years old orphan granddaughter of Mrs. Chaffee. At the end of the first day of the journey the party stopped at a tavern in Leicester. Mrs. Chaffee was a sufferer from heart trouble, and in the night arose and dressed and went to the office in the tavern where there was a good fire in the large fireplace, and early in the morning was found dead on the floor, having fallen from her chair. The journey was delayed one day so that a coffin might be secured, and the Berkshire relatives were notified. A brief service was held at Leicester, and a considerable body of men escorted the funeral party to the village limits, an act of courtesy and respect much appreciated by those who were bereaved among strangers. The body of Mrs. Chaffee was taken to Berkshire and buried in the cemetery south of the Center. The incidents of this paragraph were told the compiler by Mrs. Luthera M. (Chaffee) Branch, widow of the late Dr. John Branch, of St. Albans, Vt., in an interview in March, 1911. Mrs. Branch is the granddaughter referred to.

Braddock Chaffee bought and sold several parcels of land in Rehoboth, and an account of these transactions is found in "The Chaffee Genealogy." In one of these deeds he is called "Braddock Chaffee yeoman of Rehoboth."

The compiler has not learned of any Chaffees or Chaffee descendants who settled early in Franklin county, Vermont, other than Comfort Chaffee and his children, and the two daughters of Braddock Chaffee just mentioned, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Birch. The date of their settlement in Berkshire is not known to the compiler, but it may have been but a little later than that of Comfort Chaffee. Because of this early settlement in Berkshire, and because three descendants of Braddock married descendants of Comfort, this chapter is given herewith.

Children, born in Rehoboth:

- + i Sarah⁶ Chaffee, b. Feb. 28, 1784; m. Jonas Green.
- + ii Mary Chaffee, b. May 25, 1786; m. ——— Birch.

- iii Hannah Chaffee, b. Nov. 11, 1788; d. (prob.) before 1813, as she was not mentioned in her father's will; probably unmarried.
- iv Judith Chaffee, b. Nov. 11, 1790; d. (prob.) before 1813, as she was not mentioned in her father's will; probably unmarried.
- + v Asa Chaffee, b. May 20, 1794; m. Mrs. Almira M. Colvin.
- + vi Henrietta Chaffee, b. Jan. 2, 1797; m. ——— Collins.
- vii Lephe Chaffee, b. Aug. 31, 1798; d. (prob.) before 1813, as she was not mentioned in her father's will; probably unmarried.

SIXTH GENERATION.

Sarah⁶ Chaffee, (Braddock,⁵ Dan,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) (familiarily known as "Sally") b. Feb. 28, 1784, Rehoboth, Mass.; m. to Jonas Green, son of Philip Green, of Clarendon, Vt. Mr. and Mrs. Green long resided in Berkshire, Vt., on the farm adjoining that of Reuben⁷ Chaffee on the east, it being lot No. 4 in the first division of Berkshire. Philip Green bought this lot of Comfort Chaffee for $400 on June 20, 1803. (See page 13.) This farm is now owned and occupied by Joseph Demar.

Child:

- i Nelson H.⁷ Green, b. (about) July 27, 1807; d. Dec. 6, 1870, Berkshire, "aged 63 years, 4 months and 9 days;" Unm.; a farmer.

Mary⁶ Chaffee, (Braddock,⁵ Dan,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. May 25, 1786, Rehoboth, Mass.; d. Dec. 22, 1873, Berkshire, Vt.; m. to ——— Birch. Throughout Berkshire, Mrs. Birch was familiarily known as "Grandma Birch." She was rather reticent concerning her early life, and rarely spoke of her husband, of whom almost nothing is known. It is told that she once said that her husband was a foundling and was left at the roots of a large birch tree, hence those who found him and brought him up gave him the name of "Birch." Her later life was passed with her daughters in Berkshire.

Children:

- + i Lephe⁷ Birch, b. in 1805; m. Asaph Wheeler.
- + ii Celina Birch, b. (about) Aug. 2, 1806; m. George W. Larabee.

Asa⁶ Chaffee, (Braddock,⁵ Dan,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. May 20, 1794, Rehoboth, Mass.; d. in 1823 or 1824, (prob.) in Clarendon, Vt.; m. to Mrs. Almira M. Colvin. Mr. Chaffee probably resided in Clarendon, Vt. He died possessed of some property, as his daughter had a guardian appointed to care for the same.

Child:

- i Luther⁷ Marion⁷ Chaffee, b. Oct. 27, 1823; m. April 14, 1846, in St. Albans, Vt., by the Rev. Worthington Smith, to Dr. John Branch, of St. Albans. At that time she was called "of Berkshire, Vt." Dr. Branch is deceased, but in 1911 Mrs. Branch was living at the corner of Bank and High streets, St. Albans, with her son, John⁸ Branch, treasurer of the People's Trust Co. No attempt was made to complete the record of this family.

Henrietta⁶ Chaffee, (Braddock,⁵ Dan,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. Jan. 2, 1797, Rehoboth, Mass.; m. to ——— Collins; had several children, and moved to the West. The compiler made no attempt to complete the record of this family, as it did not appear that they resided in Berkshire at any time.

SEVENTH GENERATION.

Lephe⁷ Birch, (Mary⁶ Chaffee, Braddock,⁵ Dan,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. in 1805; d. in 1857, (prob.) Enosburg, Vt.; m. to Asaph Wheeler, and resided in Enosburg. Mr. Wheeler was a farmer. Among the children of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were the following:

- i Lucius H. Wheeler, b. Nov. 4, 1827, Enosburg; m. (2) Mrs. Elvira R.⁸ (Chaffee) Redding. (See No. 67.)
- ii Luthera E. Wheeler, b. in 1832, Enosburg; m. John⁸ Chaffee, Jr. (See No. 54.)

Celina⁷ Birch, (Mary⁶ Chaffee, Braddock,⁵ Dan,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) b. (about) Aug. 2, 1806; d. Feb. 7, 1844, (prob.) Berkshire, "aged 37 years, 6 months and 5 days;" m. to George W. Larabee, son of William and Amy Larabee, b. (about) Oct. 21, 1800, d. Feb. 6, 1890, "aged 89 years, 3 months and 16 days." Mr. Larabee was a farmer; resided in Berkshire. Among the children of Mr. and Mrs. Larabee is the following:

- i Asa Chaffee⁸ Larabee, b. June 29, 1833; m. to Lydia Lewis, b. Feb. 1, 1837, d. Nov. 30, 1909. Among the children of Mr. and Mrs. Larabee is the following:
Lawrence Brainerd⁹ Larabee, b. Oct. 4, 1869, Berkshire; m. to Sabra Elvira⁹ Chaffee. (See No. 258.)

NOTE.—No attempt has been made to make this chapter complete, but only to show the connection with the common ancestor of those of this line who married descendants of the Comfort Chaffee line, and to sketch briefly the lineage and the connection with Berkshire history.

THE BLISS FAMILY.

Thomas Bliss, said to have been the son of Jonathan Bliss, of Belstone, England, came to America from England in 1636; settled in Rehoboth, Mass., in 1643; m. to Mistress Ide.

Jonathan Bliss, son of Thomas Bliss and Mistress Ide, b. about 1625, in England; d. about the beginning of the year 1687; m. to Miriam Harmon. He was a blacksmith, and resided in Rehoboth, Mass.

Children:

- + i Experience* Bliss, b. Feb. 5, 1649; m. Nathaniel Chaffe.
- ii Rachel Bliss, b. Dec. 1, 1651; m. Thomas Mann.
- iii Jonathan Bliss, b. March 4, 1653; d. same year.
- iv Mary Bliss, b. Sept. 30, 1655.
- v Elizabeth Bliss, b. Jan. 29, 1657, m. James Thurber.
- vi Samuel Bliss, b. June 24, 1660; d. Aug. 28, 1720.
- vii Martha Bliss, b. April, 1663.
- viii Jonathan Bliss (sometimes recorded as Timothy), b. Sept. 17, 1666; d. Oct. 16, 1719.
- + ix Dorithy Bliss, b. Jan. 27, 1668; m. James Carpenter.
- x Bethia Bliss, b. August, 1671; m. Daniel Carpenter.

Experience Bliss, dau. of Jonathan and Miriam (Harmon) Bliss, b. Feb. 5, 1649, (prob.) Rehoboth, Mass.; d. September, 1721, Rehoboth; m. Aug. 19, 1669, in Swansea, Mass., to Nathaniel² Chaffe (Thomas¹). (See pages 4 and 5.)

In response to an inquiry asking for the authority for calling Experience Bliss the daughter of Jonathan and Miriam (Harmon) Bliss, when "The Bliss Genealogy" gave no such child to them, Mr. William H. Chaffee, of South Manchester, Conn., author and compiler of "The Chaffee Genealogy," wrote as follows:

"I have found out that the Bliss Genealogy is wrong in calling the first child of Jonathan and Miriam (Harmon) Bliss, Ephraim, for it was Experience, b. Feb. 5th, 1649, as there was no Ephraim Bliss living in Rehoboth, Mass., till a generation later. Experience married Nathaniel Chaffee."

Dorothy Bliss, dau. of Jonathan and Miriam (Harmon) Bliss, b. Jan. 27, 1668, (prob.) Rehoboth, Mass.; d. Oct. 28, 1694; m. June 26, 1690, to James⁵ Carpenter, (Samuel,⁴ William,³ William,² William.¹) See next chapter for further record.

*Given as Ephraim Bliss in "The Bliss Genealogy."

THE CARPENTER FAMILY.

In "The Carpenter Genealogy," by the late Amos B. Carpenter, of Waterford, Vt., is given a line of descent of English Carpenters, which, if not absolutely proven in all details, is undoubtedly correct. The first nine generations are briefly as follows:

- 1 John Carpenter, "In 1303 (the 20th year of the reign of Edward I) John Carpenter appeared. He was a member of Parliament in 1323, for the Borough of Leskard, in Cornwall."—Playfair's British Antiquities, London, 1810.
- 2 Richard Carpenter, son of John, born about 1335.
- 3 John Carpenter, Sr., son of Richard, and brother of John, the Town Clerk of London.
- 4 John Carpenter, Jr., son of John, Sr., born about 1410.
- 5 William Carpenter, son of John, born about 1440, died in 1520. The William of Homme.
- 6 James Carpenter, son of William, probably born about 1460; died in 1537.
- 7 John Carpenter, son of James, probably born about 1485, died in 1540.
- 8 William Carpenter, son of John, probably born about 1505, or 1520; died in 1550.
- 9 William Carpenter, son of William, probably born in 1540. He is William¹ Carpenter of the Genealogy.

FIRST GENERATION.

William¹ Carpenter, probably born about 1540; lived in England, was the ninth in the line of the English Carpenters.

SECOND GENERATION.

THIRD GENERATION.

William³ Carpenter, (William,² William¹) b. in 1605, in England; d. Feb. 7, 1659, Rehoboth; came to America in the ship "Bevis" in 1638; m. to Abigail _____, who died Feb. 22, 1687. Mr. Carpenter settled first in Weymouth, Mass., and a few years later in Rehoboth.

Children, the first three born in England, the next three in Weymouth, and the youngest one in Rehoboth:

- i John⁴ Carpenter, b. about 1628.
- + ii William Carpenter, b. about 1631, or 1632.
- iii Joseph Carpenter, b. (prob.) about 1633.
- iv Hannah Carpenter, b. April 3, 1640.
- v Abiah Carpenter, a twin, b. April 9, 1643.
- vi Abigail Carpenter, a twin, b. April 9, 1643.
- + vii Samuel Carpenter, b. (prob.) in 1644; m. Sarah Readaway.

FOURTH GENERATION.

William⁴ Carpenter, (William,³ William,² William¹) b. about 1631 or 1632 in England; d. Jan. 26, 1703, Rehoboth, Mass., aged 72 years; m. (1) Oct. 5, 1651, to Priscilla Bennett, who d. Oct. 20, 1663, Rehoboth; (2) Dec. 10, 1663, to Miriam Searles, who died May 1, 1722, Rehoboth, Mass., age as marked on tombstone, 93 years. Four children were born to Mr. Carpenter by his first wife, and ten by his second wife. The thirteenth child was Hannah⁵ Carpenter, b. April 10, 1684, or 1685, Rehoboth, Mass.; m. Nov. 23, 1703, to Jonathan³ Chaffe, (Nathaniel,² Thomas.¹) (See pages 5 and 6.)

THE BERKSHIRE CHAFFEES.

Samuel⁴ Carpenter, (William,³ William,² William¹) b. (prob.) 1644, Rehoboth, Mass.; d. Feb. 20, 1682, or 1683; m. May 25, 1660, to Sarah Readaway. Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, of whom the fourth was + James⁵ Carpenter, b. April 12, 1668, Rehoboth; m. (1) Dorothy Bliss; (2) Grace Palmer.

FIFTH GENERATION.

James⁵ Carpenter, (Samuel,⁴ William,³ William,² William¹) b. April 12, 1668, Rehoboth, Mass.; d. April 27, 1737, in his 71st year; m. (1) June 26, 1690, to Dorothy Bliss, dau. of Jonathan and Miriam (Harmon) Bliss, b. Jan. 27, 1668, (prob.) Rehoboth, d. Oct. 28, 1694, Rehoboth, (see preceeding chapter); (2) April 15, 1695, in Rehoboth, to Grace Palmer.

Three children were born to Mr. Carpenter by his first wife, and six children by his second wife, all born in Rehoboth. The third child (by first wife, Dorothy Bliss) was + Dorothy⁶ Carpenter, b. Oct. 7, 1694; m. Benjamin Mansfield.

SIXTH GENERATION.

Dorothy⁶ Carpenter, (James,⁵ Samuel,⁴ William,³ William,² William¹) b. Oct. 7, 1694, Rehoboth, Mass.; d. Feb. 17, 1740, Rehoboth; m. Sept. 29, 1726, (intentions published Oct. 30, 1725,) in Rehoboth, by the Rev. John Greenwood, to Benjamin Mansfield. Earnest efforts by the compiler and others have so far failed to discover the ancestry of Benjamin Mansfield. His birth is not recorded in Rehoboth. Among the children of Benjamin and Dorothy (Carpenter) Mansfield was Ruth⁷ Mansfield, b. June 4, 1732, Rehoboth; d. Jan. 3, 1760, Rehoboth; m. Oct. 15, 1755, in Rehoboth, to Nathaniel⁵ Chaffee, Jr., (Nathaniel,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas¹) and became the mother of Comfort⁶ Chaffee. (See pages 6 and 7.)

The fact that Ruth Mansfield and her husband, Nathaniel Chaffee, Jr., were each descended from both the Bliss and Carpenter families should be noticed.

THE MASON FAMILY.

FIRST GENERATION.

Sampson Mason was in Massachusetts as early as July 25, 1649. The Rev. Isaac Backus in the "History of the Baptists in America" says, "Sampson Mason was a soldier in Cromwell's army and he came to America upon the turn of the times in England and settled in Rehoboth, and his posterity are now as numerous as perhaps those of any man who came to our country in his day."

Sampson Mason bought a house and home lot in Dorchester, Mass., March 9, 1650-51, and sold the same Feb. 19, 1655-6. He was in Rehoboth, Mass., as early as Dec. 9, 1657. He married Mary Butterworth, who died Aug. 29, 1714. Sampson Mason was designated as a shoemaker. His burial is recorded in Rehoboth Sept. 15, 1676.

FIFTH GENERATION.

David⁵ Stow, (Thomas,⁴ Samuel,³ Nathaniel,² John¹) b. April 29, 1729, Marlboro, Mass.; m. (intentions published) April 20, 1754, Westboro, Mass., to Lucy Goodnow, dau. of Thomas and Persis (Rice) Goodnow, b. May 16, 1736, Westboro. David Stow resided in Grafton, Mass. When a young woman, Mrs. Lovina F. (Chaffee) Wheeler (No. 68) visited the house in Grafton in which David and Lucy (Goodnow) Stow resided, and saw the room wherein her grandmother, Lucy (Stow) Chaffee, was born.

Children, born in Grafton:

- i Levinah, or Lovina,⁶ Stow, b. May 17, 1755; m. (prob.) ——— Felton, of Grafton, Mass. It is probable that Lovina Felton⁸ Chaffee (No. 68) was named for her.
- ii Elijah Stow, b. Jan. 21, 1757.
- + iii Lucy Stow, b. April 30, 1758; m. (1) Reuben Hoyt; (2) Comfort Chaffee.
- iv David Stow, b. March 12, 1760.
- v Samuel Stow, b. Nov. 26, 1761; probably resided in Providence, R. I.
- vi Aaron Stow, b. (bap.) Dec. 4, 1763. It is probable that Aaron Stowe⁷ Chaffee (No. 10) was named for him.
- vii Ithamar Stow, b. (bap.) April 6, 1766. It is probable that Ithamar Stowe⁸ Chaffee (No. 20) was named for him.
- viii Moses Stow, b. (bap.) Jan. 28, 1770; probably died in infancy.
- ix Moses Stow, b. (bap.) July 28, 1771; probably resided in New Haven, Vt.
- x Joshua Stow, b. (bap.) June 26, 1774; probably died in infancy.
- xi Joshua Stow, b. (bap.) Oct. 15, 1775.
- xii Lovel Stow, b. June 7, 1779; m. Aug. 16, 1801, to Betsey Batchellor. It is probable that Lovell Stowe⁸ Chaffee (No. 71) was named for him.
- xiii Silas Stow, b. June 19, 1784; d. Oct. 13, 1872, Berkshire, Vt.; m. April 28, 1811, in Grafton, to Polly Nason, b. Oct. 19, 1788, Boston, Mass., d. Feb. 2, 1868, Berkshire. Mr. and Mrs. Stow resided in Berkshire, and their descendants are quite numerous, a large number of whom still reside in Berkshire.

There is said to have been another daughter, probably named Persis Stow, who probably married ——— White. One authority says there were fourteen children in this family, while the late S. Absalom Sowe, of Berkshire, told the compiler, in the autumn of 1909, that his father, Silas Stow, was the youngest one of a family of fifteen children.

SIXTH GENERATION.

Lucy⁶ Stow, (David,⁵ Thomas,⁴ Samuel,³ Nathaniel,² John¹) b. April 30, 1758, Grafton, Mass.; d. March 23, 1845, Berkshire, Vt.; m. (1) June 20, 1779, to Reuben

Hoyt, of New Braintree, Mass., a Revolutionary soldier who d. Feb. 4, 1781; (2) Sept. 25, 1781, in Grafton, to Comfort⁶ Chaffee, (Nathaniel,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Jonathan,³ Nathaniel,² Thomas.¹) See pages 10 to 20.

THE JOHNSON FAMILY.

William Johnson came from England and settled in Charlestown, Mass., in 1634. One or two children were born before leaving England; he had in all six sons and two daughters, the third son being Jonathan² Johnson, (William¹) b. Aug. 14, 1641; m. Oct. 14, 1663, to Mary Newton, dau. of Richard and Anne Newton. Jonathan Johnson is called the head of the Southboro, Mass., branch. He had three children who lived to adult age, one of whom was

William³ Johnson, (Jonathan,² William¹) b. Dec. 15, 1665; m. (1) in 1688, to Hannah Larkin, dau. of Thomas Larkin, of Charlestown, Mass., who d. Dec. 18, 1696; (2) to Hannah Rider, dau. of William Rider, of Watertown, Mass., and afterwards of Sherborn, Mass. Four children were born to William³ Johnson by his first wife, and eight by his second wife—six sons and six daughters, two of the daughters dying young. One of the children by the first marriage was Hannah⁴ Johnson, (William,³ Jonathan,² William¹) b. July 20, 1691, Marlboro, Mass.; d. June 15, 1789, Marlboro; m. Jan. 20, 1713-14, in Marlboro, to Thomas⁴ Stow, (Samuel,³ Nathaniel,² John.¹) See the record of the family of Thomas Stow earlier in this chapter.

The will of Thomas Stow was proved Oct. 8, 1765. In this will the son, Josiah Stow, was required to provide for the support of his mother, Hannah Stow, and the provision for the widow is so immediately connected with the mode of living at that time that a few of the items are given, and this enumeration will apply substantially to other cases of that period. There was to be provided annually "9 bushels of corn, 3 bushels of rye, 2 bushels of malt, 120 pounds of pork, 80 pounds of beef, 2 barrels of cider, 20 pounds of mutton, 1 bushel of salt, 2 gallons of rum, 4 gallons of molasses, 6 pounds of sugar, together with the income of two cows, a horse and tacking to ride to meeting, etc., etc."

Hannah (Johnson) Stow was the mother of eighteen children, yet she lived to be nearly 98 years of age. The longevity of the descendants of the Stows and Johnsons seems remarkable.

This Hannah Stow was "the honoured grandmother" who gave Lucy⁶ Stow a Bible on Dec. 14, 1776, as told on page 10. When we think of this Bible having been given by a woman born 220 years ago, it seems a more precious relic than ever.

THE GOODNOW FAMILY.

Thomas Goodnow and wife, Mary, had

Samuel² Goodnow, (Thomas¹) of Marlboro, Mass., who was made freeman in 1690; d. in 1717; m. to Mary ———, and had sons

- i Thomas³ Goodnow, b. Dec. 6, 1672. (March 5, 1671-2 in dup.)
- +ii Samuel Goodnow, b. "ye latter end Nov." 1679; m. Sarah ———.

(The authority for the above is "Savage's Genealogical Dictionary," which gives under the name, Goodnow, "Samuel of Marlboro, son of Thomas by wife Mary, had Thomas b. in 1672; was freeman in 1690; d. 1717." Also, in "Marlboro Vital Records," births, under name of Goodenow is found "Thomas, son Samuel and Mary, Dec. 6, 1672 (March 5, 1671-2 in dup.)" and "Samuel, son Samuel and Mary 'ye latter end Nov.' 1675." Goodnow is variously spelled "Goodenow" and "Good-enough" in the records.)

Samuel³ Goodnow, (Samuel,² Thomas¹) b. "ye latter end Nov." 1675, Marlboro, Mass.; m. to Sarah ———, and had

Thomas⁴ Goodnow, (Samuel,³ Samuel,² Thomas¹) b. May 18, 1709; d. May 22, 1790; m. April 7, 1734, to Persis⁴ Rice, (Edward,³ Samuel,² Edmund¹) b. April 15, 1714, (see record of Rice family following this); resided in Westboro and Northboro, Mass.; had twelve children, the second one being Lucy⁵ Goodnow, (Thomas,⁴ Samuel,³ Samuel,² Thomas¹) b. May 16, 1736, Westboro, Mass.; m. (intentions published) April 20, 1754, to David⁵ Stow, (Thomas,⁴ Samuel,³ Nathaniel,² John¹) of Marlboro, Mass., b. April 29, 1729, Marlboro; resided in Grafton, Mass. See the record of David Stow's family earlier in this chapter.

NOTE.—No published Goodnow genealogy has been found by the compiler, and the foregoing line has been arranged from the authorities given, together with the vital records of other towns, but it is believed to be correct.

THE RICE FAMILY.

Edmund Rice, b. about 1594, came to New England, and settled in Sudbury, Mass., in 1639; later removed to Marlboro, Mass.; d. May 3, 1663, Marlboro. He had twelve children, nine sons and three daughters, the fifth son being

Samuel² Rice, (Edmund¹) b. (about) 1634 (he was 32 years old May 2, 1666); d. Feb. 25, 1684-5, aged about 51 years; m. (1) Nov. 8, 1665, to Elizabeth King, who d. at Sudbury, and was buried Oct. 30, 1667; (2) September, 1668, to Mrs. Mary (Dix) Brown, widow of Abraham Brown, of Watertown, Mass., d. He had six children by his first wife, three children by his second wife, and one child by his third. The only son by the second wife, Mary (Dix) Brown, was

Edward³ Rice, (Samuel,² Edmund¹) b. June 20, 1672; d. July 20, 1741, Marlboro, Mass.; m. May 25, 1702, to Lydia Fairbank, dau. of Eliezer and Martha ——— Fairbank, of Sherborn, Mass., b. March 8, 1682-3, d. Sept. 13, 1755. (See a sketch of the Fairbank family following this.) Edward³ Rice resided in Marlboro. He had ten children, the sixth one being Persis⁴ Rice, (Edward,³ Samuel,² Edmund¹) b. April 15, 1714; m. to Thomas⁴ Goodnow (Samuel,³ Samuel,² Thomas¹) See the record of Thomas Goodnow's family earlier in this chapter.

THE FAIRBANK FAMILY.

Jonathan Fairbank, b. in England before 1600; d. Dec. 5, 1668, Dedham, Mass.; came in 1633 with his family to Boston where he remained three years, then settled in Dedham, and was one of the number who signed the Covenant when the town was established and named. His wife's maiden name was Grace Lee, and she d. "28th of 10th month 1673" or "19-3-1676" both dates being given in the records. The children of Jonathan Fairbank were all born in England, the second child being

George² Fairbank, (Jonathan¹) b. in England, came to Boston with his parents in 1633, and to Dedham, Mass., three years later; resided in Dedham until 1657, when he removed to Sherborn, Mass., and afterwards to Medway, Mass.; known as

Captain George Fairbank; drowned Jan. 10, 1682; m. "26th of the 8th month, 1646," to Mary Adams, of Dedham, who d. Aug. 11, 1711, in Mendon, Mass., probably at the home of her son-in-law, William Holbrook. The fourth child of Capt. George Fairbank was Eliesur³ Fairbank, also spelled "Eliezer", (George,² Jonathan¹) b. "8th of the 4th month" 1655; lived in Sherborn, Mass.; in 1679, he drew a home lot of 19 acres on the main street of Sherborn, adjoining Peter's Hill; was selectman in 1703; m. to Martha ———. One historian gives her maiden name as Martha Bullard, dau. of Capt. Samuel Bullard, but Eliesur Fairbank's son, Capt. Eleasur Fairbank, m. Martha, dau. of Capt. Samuel Bullard, and no mention is made in the Bullard Genealogy of Martha Bullard, wife of Eliesur Fairbank, Senr. Six children were born to Eliesur and Martha Fairbank, the third child being Lydia⁴ Fairbank, (Eliesur,³ George,² Jonathan¹) b. March 8, 1682-3; d. Sept. 13, 1755; m. May 25, 1702, to Edward³ Rice (Samuel,² Edmund¹) b. June 20, 1672, d. July 20, 1741, Marlboro, Mass. See the record of this family earlier in this chapter.

THE DANFORTH FAMILY.

In Framlingham, England, has been found the records of four generations of ancestors of Nicholas Danforth, the New England pioneer, as follows:

- 1 William Danforth, m. Isabell ———; d. in 1512.
- 2 Paul Danforth, m. Katheryne ———; d. in 1538.
- 3 Nicholas Danforth, m. Alice ———; d. in 1585.

(There are eleven or more variations of the spelling of the name in the English records.)

The American line begins with the next generation:

THE KENDALL FAMILY.

Francis Kendal, the common ancestor of the Kendalls in New England, was in Charlestown, Mass., in 1640, and thence went to Woburn, Mass., which was that year granted to Charlestown settlers. He was a very prominent citizen and had large influence. He died in 1708, aged 88 years. He was the miller of Woburn, and his mill privilege is yet in the family. His will, dated May 9, 1706, probated May 31, 1708, is on file in the Probate Office of Middlesex county, at the court house, East Cambridge, Mass. Francis Kendal had nine children, four sons and five daughters, the youngest son being

His house stood near the present central cemetery, and in his home was held the first recorded town meeting of Dunstable, and until the meeting house was built the town meetings were held in his tavern. He was one of the committee to build the meeting house in 1753, and was a signer of the original church covenant. He was called Ensign Kendall. After his death, the old tavern was a rendezvous for rallying during the Revolution. Among the children of Ebenezer and Hannah Kendall were five sons, viz.: Asa Kendall, b. in 1735, kept the tavern after his father's death, and was called Sergeant Kendall; Ebenezer Kendall, b. in 1736; William Kendall, b. There is a letter written by him in 1777 which is dated at "New Epswich," N. H. The history of Franklin in Miss Hemenway's "Vermont Historical Gazetteer" has the following:

"Capt. William Kendall settled on what is since known as the John Hammond farm, in the S. E. part of the town, as early as 1794, Capt. Kendall was killed by the falling of a building, used as an ashery, a little south of here in the edge of Sheldon, in 1798."

THE TOWLE FAMILY.

An excellent little book entitled "Towle Genealogy" was compiled by Edwin R. Towle, and published in 1892. From that work this chapter is condensed and arranged. Reuben Towle settled in Franklin, Vt., only thirteen years after Comfort Chaffee settled in the adjoining town of Berkshire, and he and his children were contemporaries of Comfort Chaffee and his children. The "Towle neighborhood" is but a few miles southeast of the "Chaffee neighborhood." At least eleven descendants of Reuben Towle have married descendants of Comfort Chaffee, hence this sketch. The Towle line runs as follows:

- 1 Phillip Towle, b. about 1616, in England; d. Dec. 19, 1696; m. to Isabella Asten, dau. of Francis Asten, of Colchester, England; came to America in 1640; settled in Hampton, N. H.
- 2 Caleb Towle, b. May 14, 1678; d. Sept. 20, 1763; m. April 1, 1698, to Zipporah Brackett; resided in Chester, N. H.
- 3 Anthony Towle, b. April 30, 1703; m. Nov. 7, 1734, to Sarah Hobbs; resided in Chester, N. H.
- 4 Jonathan Towle, b. in 1739; m. to Mrs. Ann Robie; resided in Chester, N. H.
- 5 Reuben Towle, b. Oct. 24, 1762, Chester, N. H.; d. Sept. 15, 1849, Franklin, Vt.; m. (prob.) in 1786, to Sarah Clough, dau. of Theophilus Clough, d. March 7, 1843, "aged seventy-nine years, ten months and fifteen days."

Reuben Towle, just mentioned, removed to Franklin, Vt., in 1815, and remained there afterward. All of his children also settled near him. He was a farmer, but in early life learned the trade of tanner and currier. He was a soldier in the War of the Revolution. He was probably the only child of his father, but was brought up with the Robie children, his half brothers and sisters.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

Page 24, No. 7, The files of the adjutant general of Vermont show that in the War of 1812 "W. Chafey" served from Nov. 1, 1812, to Dec. 8, 1812, in Captain George W. Kendall's company. "The Vermont Historical Gazetteer," by Miss Hemenway, has the following in the "Franklin County Military:" "This company of volunteers from Fairfield, Captain George Kimball [Kendall] commanding, was stationed at Swanton," and the roll of the company includes the name of "Warren Chafy."

Same page and family, No. 48, read "Cornelius Perness Chaffee, b. May 25, 1836," not "March." The name of Cornelius is here misspelled, as it also is on pages 36 and 37.

Page 26, No. 10. The golden wedding anniversary of Aaron S. Chaffee and wife was appropriately observed, Feb. 26, 1873, at which time ten of the eleven children were present, one son, Sylvester A. Chaffee, being unavoidably detained after he had planned to attend. It is rather singular that the eleven children of Aaron S. Chaffee were never met together, some of the older ones having gone away from home before the youngest one was born, and they never gathered under one roof afterward.

Page 31, No. 25. Aaron Kendall was b. Dec. 14, 1812; d. April 8, 1880. His wife was b. Oct. 3, 1816; d. Jan. 12, 1896.

Colpitts farm, the house having been built by Mrs. Andrus' father, Warren Chaffee.

THE CHAFFEE GENEALOGY.

The Chaffee Genealogy, begun in 1883, was published in April, 1909. There is to be found in this work of twenty-six years' search a history of the surname under its varied forms of spelling from Chafe to Chaffee, starting in this country as early as 1635, although the name is found in England long anterior to the Conquest.

The work contains 663 pages with ten pages additional as an introduction. It has over fifty illustrations consisting of portraits, old burying grounds, and various maps of places here and in England, with a map showing where the early settlers lived from 1635 to shortly after the Revolution.

Mention is made by name of those who served in the earliest wars, Indian and Colonial, as well as the Revolution and Civil War, up to and including the Spanish-American war. Tracings of old original signatures in Thomas Chaffe's Bible and from other records are shown. The volume has an index of over fifty pages of both names and places.

Over one hundred letters of congratulation have been received by the compiler since the work was completed, thereby attesting to its accuracy and interest to the subscriber.

The few remaining books are offered at ten dollars ($10) per copy, and will be forwarded expressage collect upon receipt of a money order for a like amount sent to the compiler at his residence, No. 2 Wadsworth Street, South Manchester, Connecticut, where all of the remaining copies are to be found.

Yours respectfully,

WILLIAM H. CHAFFEE.
